ANATOMY OF A SCHOOL

foreword

This was a year of progress unprecedented in the history of HHS. It was the year of the "Big Move" into the three-million dollar campus-style high school.

With the transition from the old to the new, the students were slapped in the face with a completely different type of school life.

They found the change a bit frightening at first, but then, with the natural fortitude and eagerness of youth, accepted the new ways and became the driving force and pioneers of the new Hutchinson high school.

In retrospect, the problems seemed overwhelming, especially those first few weeks without clocks, locked lockers, a public address system, and cafeteria services. Who could forget the first closed noon hour, the sack lunches, or the first plate lunch special; greasy meatloaf topped with greasy gravy.

Remember the pep rallies in the quadrangle with the cheerleaders being assisted in their efforts by the illustrious Goon Squad who made famous the Cry of the Goons—"Are we gonna beat...? How bad?..."

The double assemblies were a new thing to students conditioned to the vastness of Richardson Auditorium, but despite this, the pep assemblies were just as peppy. And don't forget the covered walks; so pleasant in the spring and early fall, so frigid in the winter. There were dances, too; the dance in the girls' gym with only a few couples attending and the dances in the cafeteria; the scene for the crowning of royalty.

And there was that unforgettable week when school spirit rose from near non-existence to an all-time high.

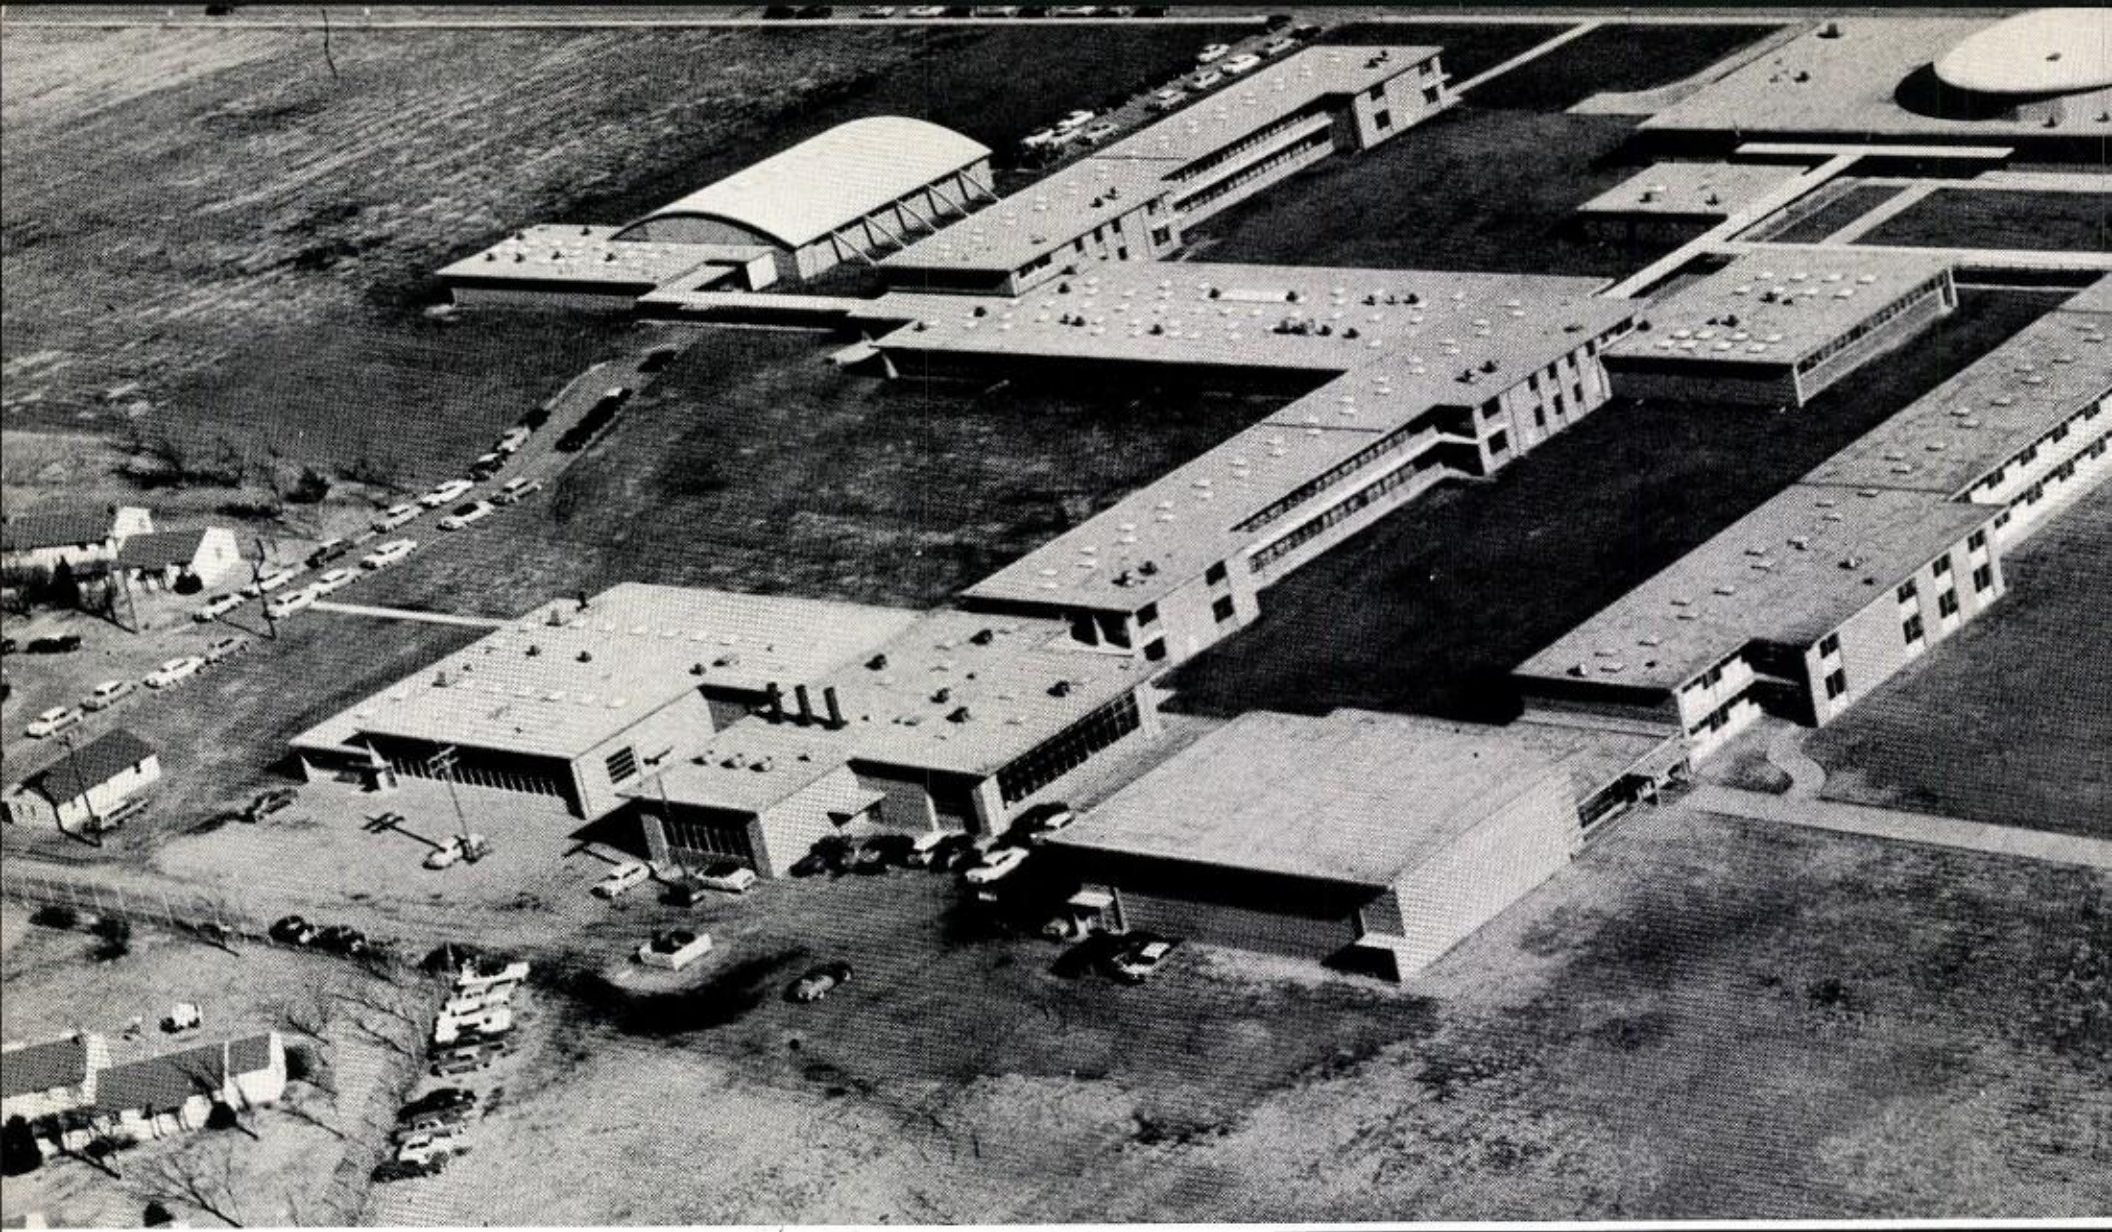

ARAB was the by-word and "We've Been Workin' on the Railroaders" was the song, and the mighty Newton basketball team bowed to the fighting Salt Hawks. This year also brought the dreaded semester and final exams. The burning of midnight oil helped many; a few were not so fortunate.

All these things are in the past now, but the memory of them lingers.

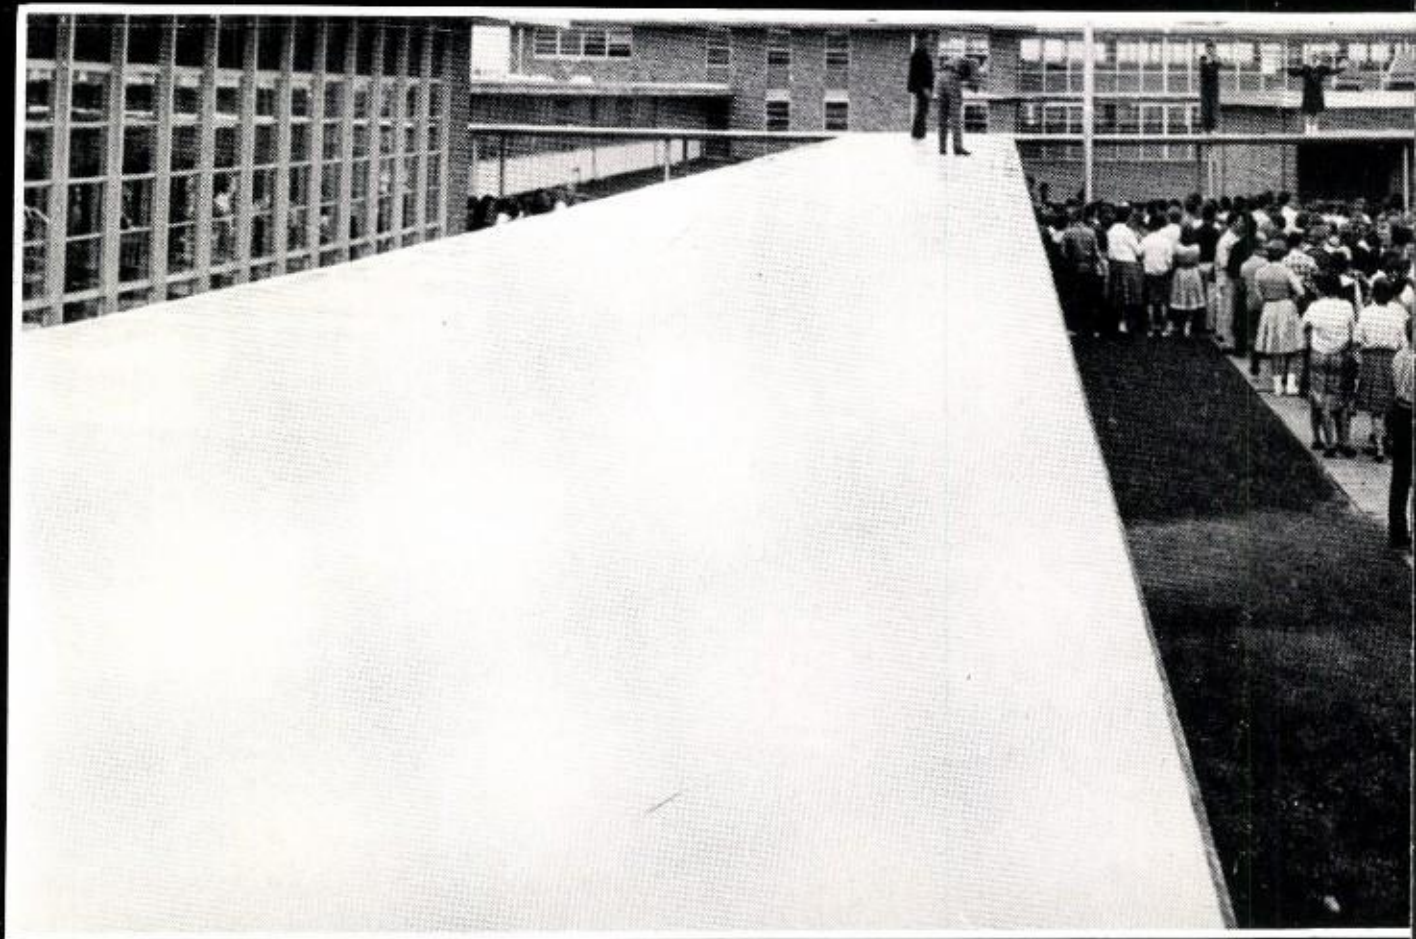

It was a year of firsts for the students, for they were the tradition-makers.

They made the memories.

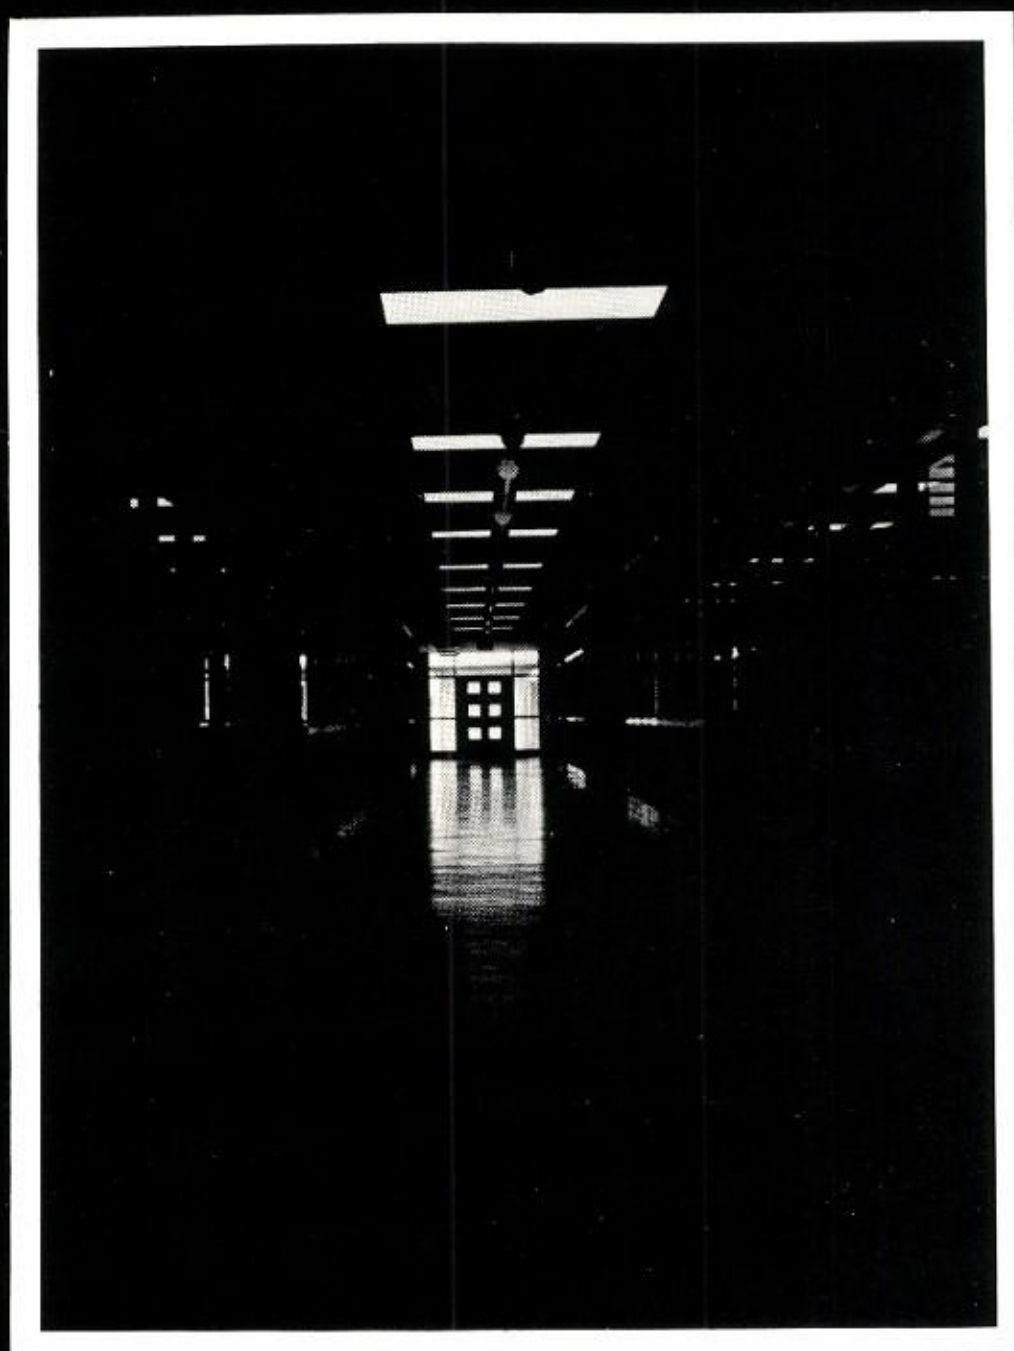

They formed the "anatomy of a school."

Three million, eight hundred thousand dollars made this an institution of learning...

... And one thousand two hundred and Quiet prevails in building G.

Eighty-one students made it a school.

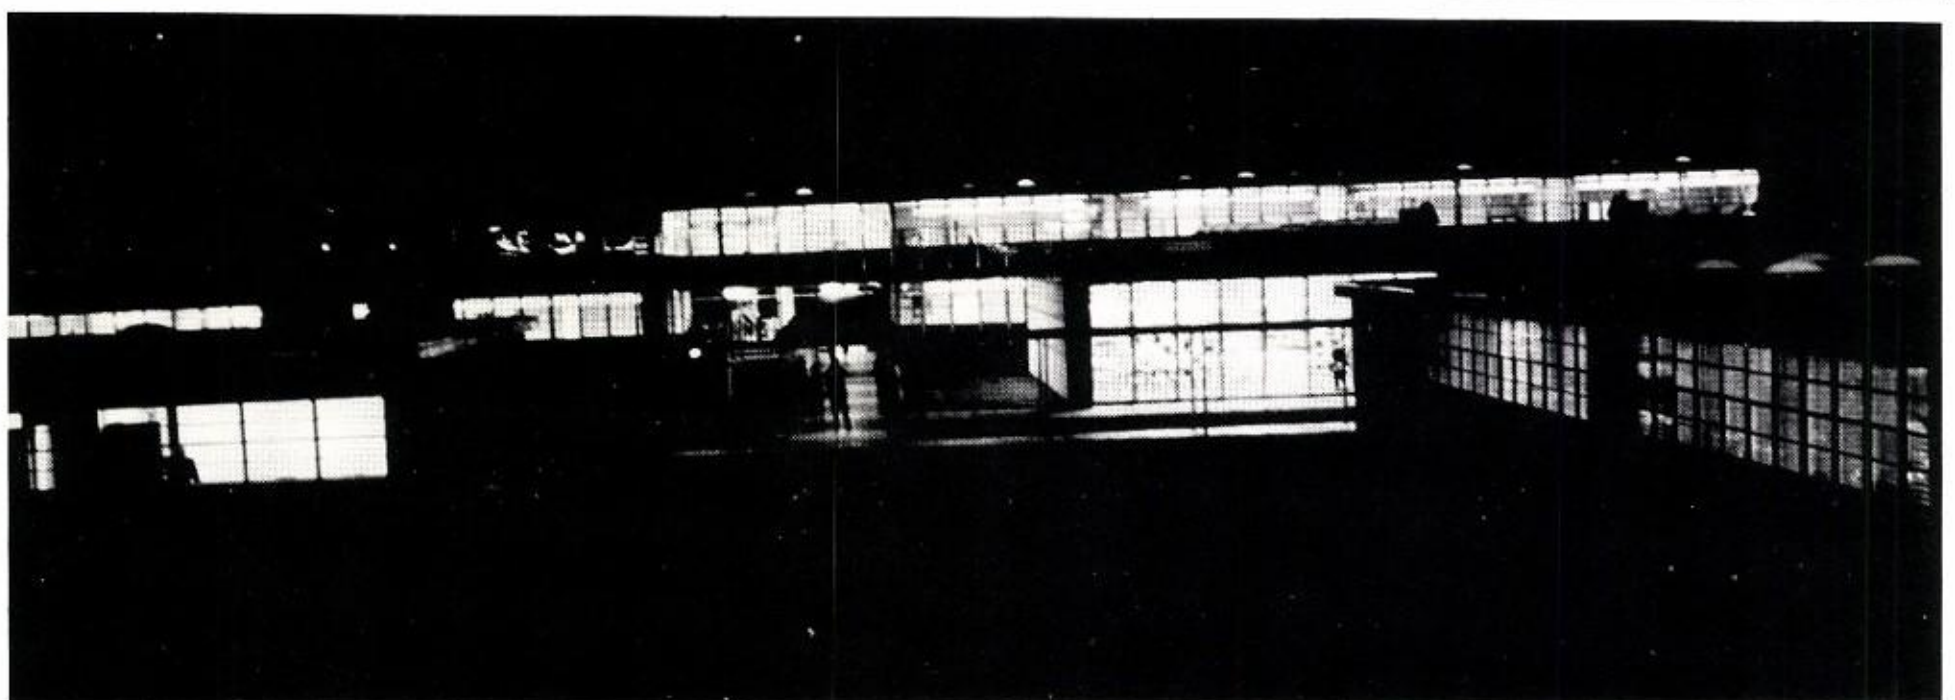

Every building...

...Must have a foundation.

These are the times that try mens souls.

dedicatee

Mrs. Doris Lyman is more than a teacher to the students; she is a friend and a counselor. She is endowed with a vivacious personality and an Irish sense of humor. She is willing and eager to work individually with students in or out of the classroom. She is sage, frank, and observant. If there is any event at HHS she doesn't know about—it hasn't happened!

She founded and sponsors H2, the junior girls' organization that ushers at all school functions.

For her outstanding personal qualities and her contributions to the community, the school, and the students of Hutch High, we proudly dedicate the 1961 Allagaroo to Mrs. Doris Lyman.

The Jim-Juliet Davis Foundation award was established in 1957 by the late Mr. Jim A. Davis and Mrs. Davis. The annual award is given to a Hutchinson High School boy and girl with records of outstanding scholastic achievement and who plan to attend a college or university in Kansas or Missouri. The recipient receives $500 a year for four years. Students are nominated by members of the faculty and selected by Principal R. C. Guy and an appointed faculty committee.

Students who have won the award have been Frank Alexander and Kristine Martin, 1957; Donna Hyder and Marvin Huffman, 1958; Sandra Gustafson and Don Worster, 1959; Esta Sue Burk and Lawrence Morgan, 1960; Marian Richards and Gary Brewer, 1961.

Looking over the latest in tennis rackets is senior class president, Van Thompson, as he anticipates tennis season. After one year at Juco, Van plans to attend veterinary school at Kansas State University.

Planning how to collect senior dues with the head sponsor, Mrs. Marion Peterson, are the senior class officers, Karen Lucas, Van Thompson, Joan Burger, and Ardith Byroad. Besides being in charge of dues, the officers plan the senior banquet and prom and the senior assembly.

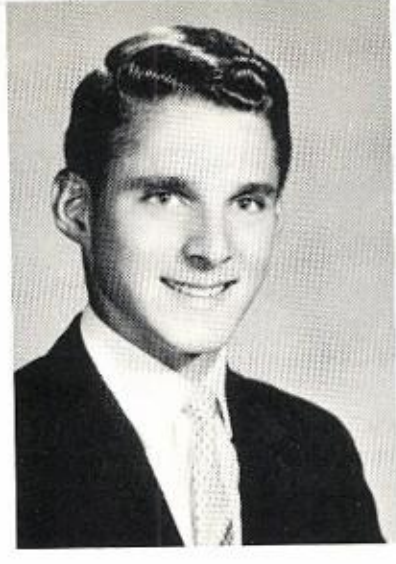

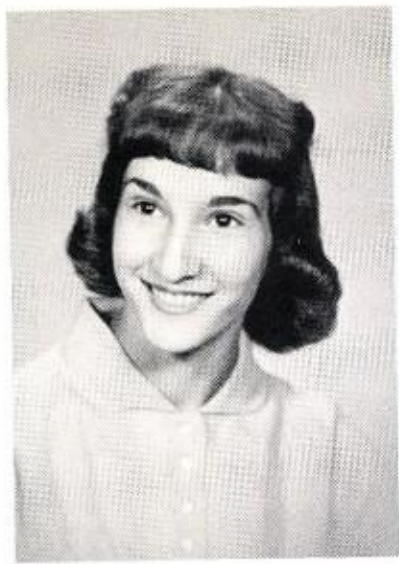

Hoping it will be a strike is senior class vice president, Ardith Byroad. She plans to attend Juco.

Hoping the library has the book she wants is Karen Lucas, senior class secretary. Karen plans to attend Kansas University next year.

"Practice makes perfect," thinks Joan Burger, senior class treasurer, as she plays her French horn. Joan plans to attend Kansas University.

Looking at pictures of last year's class officers in the 1960 ALLAGAROO are the junior class officers. They are Mrs. Mary Ann Anders, head sponsor; Donna Gaeddert, Georgia Ens, Patti Hageman, and Dennis Ayers.

Wondering whether or not to splash water at the photographer is Patti Hageman, treasurer.

On his way to an important class officers' meeting is President Dennis McClure.

Discussing activities for the sophomore class of '61 is head sponsor Mr. C. R. Gillilan and officers Barbara Bolyard, Jadey Swirles, Dennis McClure, and Becky Banyard.

Barbara Bolyard, secretary, adds a finishing touch to the Christmas bulletin board in the school library.

Taking advantage of the school's library in her spare time is Jadey Swirles, treasurer.

Publicity committee members get together during homeroom period to put the finishing touches on posters for the March 21 talent show. Committee members are Janet Brown, Marty Anderson, chairman; John Fernie, and Carolyne Newman.

Kicking off Student Council activities was the election of homeroom representatives early in the fall. At their first meeting, representatives elected Karen Singleton, secretary, and Nancy Baker, treasurer.

Student Council's first job of the year was to handle the elections of class officers and B-team cheerleaders. Stuco President Kent Britt and Vice President Lois Ann Janner headed the presentation assembly, distribution of ballots, and tabulation of votes.

Two major events Student Council sponsored were basketball homecoming and the talent show. Homecoming committees arranged for a presentation assembly in honor of the queen candidates, half time ceremonies, and a post-game dance where the candidates' names, written in mammoth script, decorated the walls of the cafeteria.

The Student Council Cafeteria Advisory Committee served as negotiator between students and cafeteria personnel. Ideas for improving the cafeteria were carried through this committee.

The highly popular casual days were sponsored by Student Council.

Whenever advice was needed Stuco officers and representatives always found sponsors Miss Ruth Evans and Mr. Carl Skoch close at hand.

Sound off! Beat Newton! yell Annette Gunn, Nancy Elliott, and Myra Neufeld as they whoop it up the day of football homecoming. To promote more pep, Student Council sponsored a casual day.

Sharon Young and David Hodge aren't robbing the telephone. They are collecting Stuco's share of the "take" from the pay telephone.

Pondering the suggestions from Stuco representatives every Monday during homeroom period are sponsors Mr. Carl Skoch and Miss Ruth Evans.

FBLA board meetings are often held in the conference room of the business unit. The board consists of, seated, Connie Meyer, Shirley Fox, recording secretary; Judy Yocum, vice president; Larry Douglas, president; Richard Babcock, treasurer; Carl Cox, and Quinton German. Standing are FBLA sponsors Mr. Walter Rinehart, Mr. Richard Stowell, Miss Charlene Mordy, Miss Virginia Armstrong, Mr. Dennis Knox, and Mr. John Smith. Absent are board members Jerry Rayl, Carol Friesen, and Richard Smith.

"Now this little gadget," explains Mr. Jim Hathaway, "is a transcriber." Mr. Hathaway demonstrated the IBM machine at an FBLA meeting.

FBLA began its program for 1961 by holding an initiation of members, sponsors, and advisers. To acquire funds to send students to the state convention at Emporia, Kans., Apr. 28 and 29, the club sponsored a "Man from the Moon" party and held a bake sale at a local store. Also on the club's agenda were two style shows, a skit, an IBM demonstration, and a court trial presented by the business law classes. The year was brought to a close with installation of the new officers, and later a picnic.

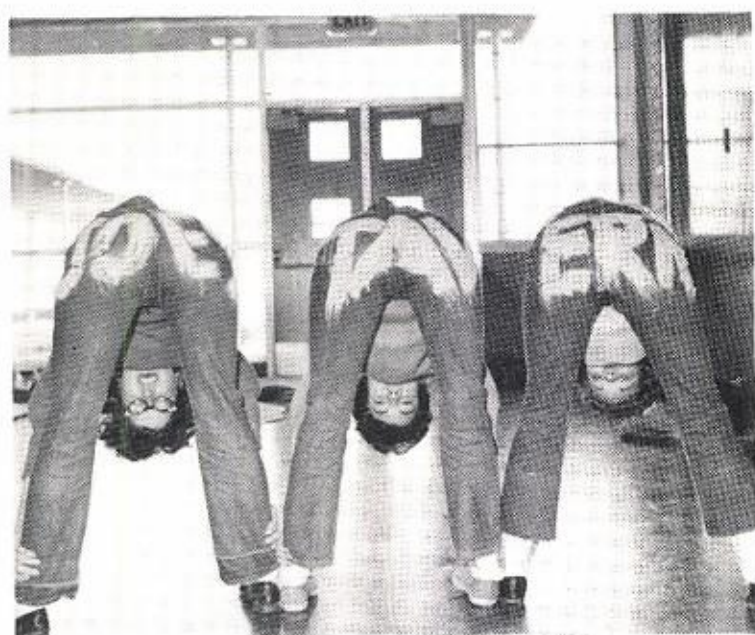

Featured at the dance are original "Men from the Moon."

Palm trees, coconuts, hula girls, and large pink sea shells decorated Ko-Ko Jo's Tavern. Ko-Ko was an island in the South Pacific. Joe's Tavern featured Geraldine Tucker as soloist and the Ko-Ko-Komers as Joe's chorus line. "Joe" was vice president Joan Fast who danced as proprietor of the Tavern.

"How does this sound?" asks Mary Beth Young as she, Michelle Williams, Judi Cummings, Linda Hoy, and Jane Welchons put their heads together for ideas on Joe's. Not pictured is another board member, Margo Lyman.

"No, you count it," says Miss Donna Needham to Miss Thressa Newell.

All smiles about the plans for Joe's Tavern is Ardith Byroad, GAA president.

"Now, where's that dime?" asks Connie Meyer as Jean Graham and Keith Wetzel buy candy apples from Ardith Byroad and board member Paula Oakley.

On the warpath are GAA initiates Carolyne Newman, Martha Anderson, Anita McGuire, Jane Welchons, Dee Murphy, and Ellen Hageman. Board members Margaret England and Birdella Black spur them on.

key club

members have projects;

host state convention

Along with doing a number of service projects, the Key Club of Hutchinson hosted the Kansas district convention.

The convention, March 23-25, highlighted the year. It was the second consecutive year the convention was held in Hutchinson and was attended by over 350 members. Guest speakers included Larry Swenson, international trustee from Leavenworth, and Scotty Young, district governor from Hutchinson.

Among service projects were the anti-j-walk campaign, vocational club programs, and the annual car check sponsored by the Hutchinson Police Department.

Fund raising projects included a car wash and participating in the Kiwanis club pancake feed.

Key Club, sponsored by the Hutchinson Kiwanis Club, worked closely with them. Mr. Frank Kellenbarger, faculty sponsor, and Mr. Herman Bunte, head Kiwanis sponsor, lent a guiding hand.

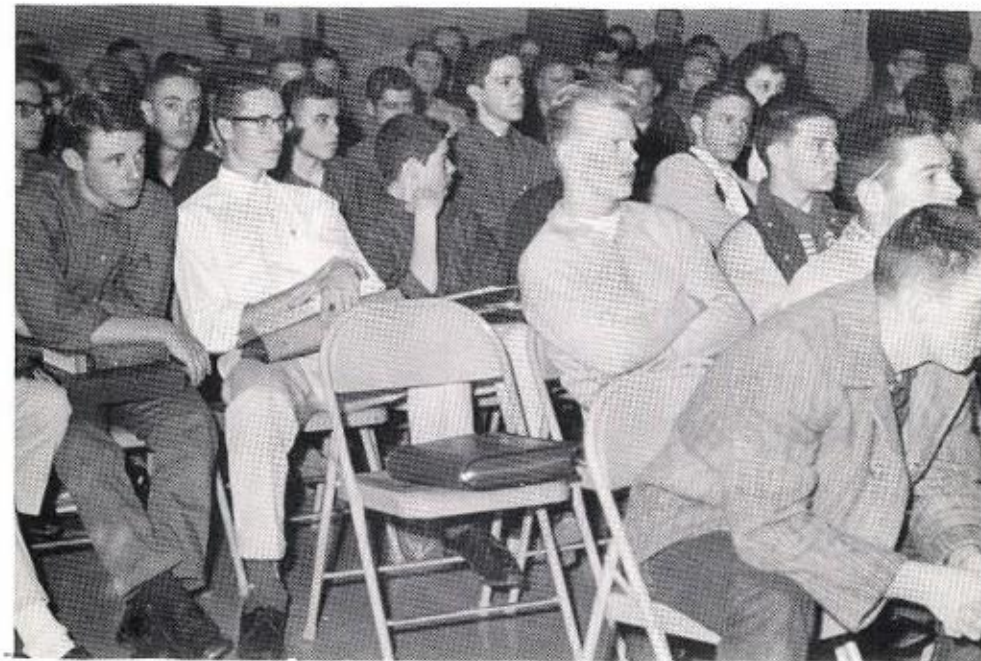

Watching the proceedings at an evening meeting are school sponsor, Mr. Frank Kellenbarger and head Kiwanis sponsor, Mr. Herman Bunte.

The state convention is the topic of discussion as Dave Hodge, state secretary-treasurer, and Scotty Young, state governor, get together to make final arrangements.

"Where are those hubcaps?" questions Lt. Jim Johnson as Charles DeGraw and Beatty Hunter try laughing it off. They are participating in the annual car check sponsored by the Hutchinson Police Department.

Displaying their natural studious expressions are Key Club members during a showing of slides by Community Ambassador, Sara Sue Bowles.

Heaping the trash at the annual Kiwanis pancake feed are Key club members David Wilson, Jack Summers, Barry Hilleary, Kent Britt, and Pat Brooks.

Discussing the finer points of the Key club convention—380 girls—are Erland Crupper, secretary; John Williamson, program chairman; Ron Herron, treasurer; David Doane, vice president; and Harry Chabin, president.

This is a watermelon feed? That's what it is called by Dell Paschal, Jim Reed, Ronnie Riffel, Richard Perry, Bill Hughes, Randy Grant, Harry Chabin, David Hodge, Kent Britt, and John Dunn although their friends on the bank think differently.

seven and a-half cents basis for musical 'pajama game'

The Pajama Game, a Broadway musical comedy hit written by Richard Adler and Jerry Ross, and adapted from the book "Seven and a-Half Cents," was presented by the music department to 1750 viewers Feb. 23, 24, and 25 in high school auditorium.

The story centered around factory workers demanding a seven and a-half cent raise and Boss Haisler's struggle to avoid giving them this raise.

Tryouts for the leads were held in October. The chorus was composed of a cappella choir members. The vocal music, under the direction of Mr. John Cooper, was accompanied by the orchestra directed by Mr. Jim Dailey. Mrs. Mary Ann Anders was the dramatics director.

Economy prevails is the motto of Joan Fast as "Babe" and Doug Kinley as "Sid" in the finale of The Pajama Game. Sharon Cole and Gerald Martens find the situation amusing.

"Can you trust me as far as the ladies' room?" asks Jadey Swirles, Gladys, of Paul Schmucker, Hienzie. A disapproving look is shown by Donna Gaeddert who played Mabel.

instrumentalists experience growth, achievement, prestige

This was a year of activity, achievement, and distinction for the students of Mr. Lew Hiigel and Mr. James Dailey. They performed with the entire department at Open House, district music festival, and at the high school music department festival. The orchestra participated in the state orchestra festival and played the accompaniment to Pajama Game. The dance band made a number of city and area appearances.

Besides playing for home football and basketball games, school and city parades, the Salt Hawk band found time to play for several out-of-town games, the State Fair, KU Band Day, and to act with the concert band as host for the Tri-City Band Clinic, with Salina and McPherson, directed by Mr. Frank Piersol, Iowa State University. The concert band also had clinics with Mr. Russell Wiley, University of Kansas, and with Mr. Hugh McMillen, University of Colorado. The band played several concerts during the year.

The saxophone quartet, composed of Virginia Bland, Derroll Bretz, Anne Cunningham, and Corkey Johnson is one of several ensembles which played for civic groups, recitals, district and state music festivals, and concerts.

The Salt Hawk Band forms a crown for the queen at halftime of the homecoming game with Winfield.

seniors present comedy-fantasy

'heaven can wait'

The 1961 senior play, "Heaven Can Wait," was presented May 9 and 11 in the high school auditorium. Mr. Bobby Patton directed the play, and Lois Ann Janner was student director. Even angels make mistakes for, in the play, the soul of Joe Pendleton, played by Ron Cully, is "collected" sixty years ahead of schedule. As Pendleton's body was cremated before this was discovered, the guilty angel, messenger 7013, played by Jerry Battey, and another helper from heaven, Mr. Jordan, played by Bob Slade, are kept busy finding a body for Joe to live in. Joe's life-long ambition is realized when he is allowed to live the rest of his life in the body of a prize-fighter and marries Bette, played by Carolyn Cotter, the girl he has loved all during his different embodiments. Other lead parts were held by Janet Symns playing Julia Farnsworth; Harry Echols playing Tony Abbott; Ed Cook playing Max Levene. Supporting roles were filled by Marcia Harmon, Linda Hoy, Dee Freidenberger, Jane Tongate, David Hodge, Mary Beth Young, Keith Ratzloff, Jim Reed, Ralph Carland, Bob Parker, Gerald Martens, and Lon McCurdy.

"Cut! Let's go through that scene once more," says Mr. Bobby Patton, play director, at tryouts.

"He says I can't use Farnsworth's body anymore," exclaims Joe Pendleton, played by Ron Cully, as Linda Hoy, Keith Ratzloff, Birdella Black, Janice Goldsmith, and Ralph Carland await their cues.

An atmosphere of tension prevails as amateurs practice their performance under dim stage lights.

Sober expressions are found on these seniors' faces as they read through their lines at tryouts. Students are Jim Reed, Eddie Cook, Nancy Baker, Karen Singleton, Carolyn Cotter, and Harry Echols.

Hopeful of getting a part in the senior play, these seniors anxiously await their turns to try out.

Addressing a club meeting is just one of the duties of Perrill club president, Kent Britt.

"What? I accept some man another woman doesn't want. Heavens no! I'd prefer to accept some man another woman does want." Patiently, the judge, played by Ed Cook, listens to the complaints of various characters in the one-act play, "The Exchange." Co-directed by June Daugherty and Sharon Elliott, the play was presented at a Perrill club meeting. Sheila Reynolds portrayed the "Vain Woman."

Getting the publicity campaign under way are crew members Patti Hageman, Nancy Elliott, Charlotte Banks, Sharon Elliott, Mary Ross, Lois Ann Janner, Sue Williams, Harrell Powell, and Carolyn Cotter, publicity chairman.

"Magnific!" exclaims June Daugherty as she and Sheila Reynolds sample the wares at the annual foods sale. Possible thoughts of Patti Hageman and Carolyn Cotter, "Sure, but there go your diets."

perrill club

supports plays,

holds annual foods sale

After acquiring the largest membership ever, Perrill club, with its 300 members, began work on its two major projects, the all-school and Perrill club plays.

The all-school play "Gidget" was the first play to be presented on the new stage. "Gidget," the story of a teen-age girl's problems in entering adulthood, was presented Nov. 17-18.

Perrill club's production, "Ask Any Girl," concerned a small town girl who went to New York in search of a job and a husband. She found a job with a research firm and also found a husband—her boss. "Ask Any Girl" was presented Feb. 9-10.

Activities were brought to a close with the annual foods sale and awards program.

Taking time out from activities to try the furniture recently purchased by the club are—seated: Mrs. Gene Cramer, sponsor; Carolyn Cotter; Rita Harrington, vice president; Sheila Reynolds, treasurer; Patti Hageman; and Lois Ann Janner. Standing: Jerry Battey, June Daugherty, secretary; and Ed Cook.

Moondoggie, played by Ed Cook, rescues the drowning Gidget, Lois Ann Janner. Observing the "catch" are surfers Leroy Woods, Grant Mallett, Bob Ehrlich, Dave Wilkens, and Jerry Battey.

Larue, played by June Daugherty, and Gidget, Lois Ann Janner, bargain for one of the surfboards sold by Stinky, Grant Mallett.

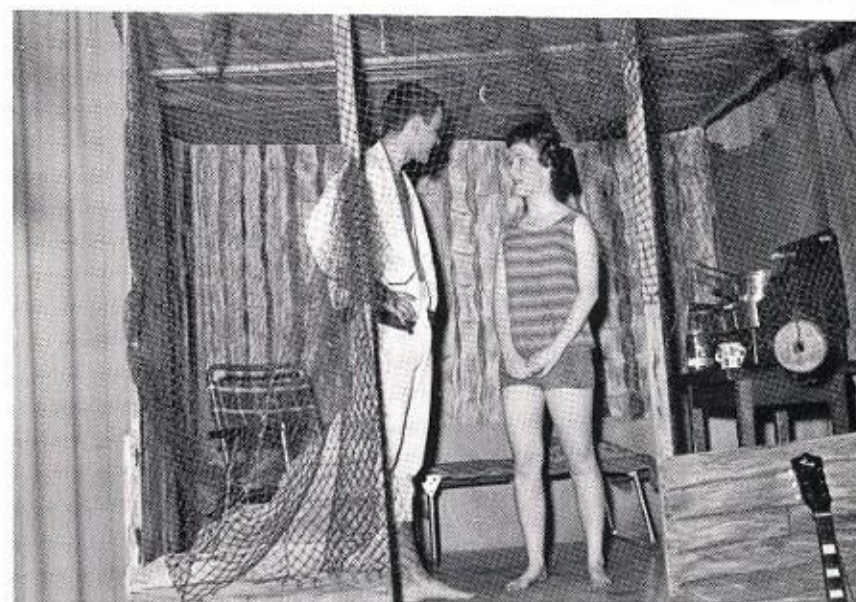

Dancing the hula at the luau are Nancy Elliott, Mary Esther Adams, (behind Nancy), Carolyn Cotter, Kay Dutton, and Ann Rimmer. Lynn Russell, Ed Cook, and Vicki McBride are their accompanists.

The surfers of Malibu, who were Gidget's whole life that summer, are portrayed by John Williamson, Dave Wilkens, Jerry Battey, Ed Cook, Leroy Woods, Arlyn Hackett, and Bob Ehrlich.

As part of the entertainment at the luau, Jane Tongate sings "Treasure Island."

Advice to the lovelorn is given Gidget, Lois Ann Janner, by John Williamson, The Kahoona. Later, Gidget returns the favor by posing as his fiancée.

Aunt Lettie, Aunt Fern, and Mrs. Wheeler, played by Sarah Seshier, Mary Adams, and Rita Harrington, inspect the hotel and its inhabitants before giving their consent for Meg to stay. Inhabitants are Cheryl Dunlop, Margo Lyman, Lynn Russell, and June Daugherty.

When it becomes doubtful that Evan will propose marriage, Mrs. Wheeler, played by Rita Harrington, advises Meg to drop him. Seconding the motion are Aunts Lettie and Fern, played by Sarah Seshier and Mary Adams, and Mr. Wheeler, Arlyn Hackett.

"C'est la vie!" exclaims Evan, Ed Cook, as he loses Meg, played by Sheila Reynolds, to his brother Miles, Ron Cully.

"You're just not the same girl. I mean — you're one girl who has everything," says Evan, played by Ed Cook. Meg, played by Sheila Reynolds, has been made into a composite of the girls Evan has dated.

fha

future homemakers of america look toward new horizons

The Future Homemakers of America looked into the future welfare of their club by beginning the year with a bang-up "Come-As-You-Are" breakfast in order that the new members might have a chance to become acquainted.

The ever-present need for money, being an important asset, spurred the FHA'ers to selling high school stationery with the picture of the new school on the cover. FHA also sold Salt Hawk decals, cookies, and candy after school. Rummage and bake sales were also on the agenda as money-raising projects.

Keeping the club active were the accomplishments of the many projects achieved throughout the year. The western-clad students square danced at the Barn-warmer in the girls' gym, with Mrs. Les Keller as the caller. Other projects included the Mother-Daughter Tea, the needy family for Christmas, and the Father-Daughter dinner.

"Home, the hub of good citizenship" was carried out by the local chapter, at the district meeting in Buhler, and the state convention in Topeka as the motto for future homemakers of Kansas.

Cooking up some new ideas for programs are the FHA sponsors Miss Margaret Ramsdale and Mrs. Elizabeth Trosper.

Looking over some material before a council meeting begins are Janet Beyer, Bev Watson, Marilyn Gifford, Nancy Solida, and Sheryl Wilson.

Sitting this one out are Harry Chabin, Carol Friesen, Marcie Spaniol, and Wes Rickman at the FHA Barnwarmer.

Linda Fuller, the only Hutchinson girl to receive her state degree this year, is working on a project for her sister.

Lending a helping hand with food and clothing for a needy family are Marlene Parker and Kathy Pettijohn.

Selling high school stationery is Jean Glaser. Her customers are Diane Steed and Helen Gibson.

Taking notes at a club meeting concerning degrees are the FHA members.

school visitation, helping teachers complete the fta's schedule

Watermelon feeds, rummage, and food sales were only a few things that kept thirty FTA'ers busy this year. Under the guidance of president Mary Jane Hubbard and sponsor, Mrs. Ariel Perrill, the members strived to stimulate their interests in the field of teaching.

Each member had the opportunity to visit another school for one half day twice a year. The visits were concentrated on one elementary school and one junior high. Besides visiting schools, each member had the opportunity to be a teachers aid for an hour every week.

One hundred dollars was raised this year and matched by the Hutchinson Teachers Association for a scholarship granted to an outstanding member of FTA.

Feeding the hamster is Linda Fuller as she works as a teachers aid in a biology room.

Serving punch at a board meeting is President Mary Jane Hubbard. Waiting in line are Sandra Dunsworth, Sue Wisby, Jeanie Hester, Karen Haskard, and Ancel Heuberger.

"Come and get it," yells Karen Singleton at the FTA watermelon feed. Gathered around are Steve Ceideburg, Gene Edman, Karen Haskard, Cecilia Myers, Mary Jane Hubbard, and Bob Slade.

Throwing darts is only one of Kayette President Patti Hagan's accomplishments.

"I'm next!" shouts Mary Beth Young to other senior board members Marcia Harmon, Nancy Baker, Dee Freidenberger, Carol Martin, and Ellen Hageman.

"Oh, I never can decide," exclaims Cheryl Dunlop to junior board members Susan Murphey, Linda Young, Margo Lyman, Jane Welchons, and Mary Carey.

"More, more," laughs Mrs. Dorothy Stamper to Miss Marie Stewart, head sponsor, and Miss Emma Sage.

Climbing the stairway to the stars are Kayette officers Donna Gaeddert, secretary; Nancy Bemis, treasurer; and Martha Gilbert, vice president.

"We helped you, now you help us by driving safely," says Jeanene Penner to Karen Singleton as Barbara Hughes washes Karen's windshields.

Pioneering in the new school to work on the Kayette bookstore are board members and sponsors. At the bookstore are Mrs. Dorothy Stamper, sponsor; Miss Emma Sage, sponsor; Roger Sullivan, John Dyer, Paul Schwarz, and John Keyser.

"I Remember Mama," the theme for the Mother-Daughter tea was carried out in the program which preceded the refreshments, in the fall.

enthusiastic members participate in active kayette curriculum

"Climb every mountain," the theme for 1960-'61, was carried out in assemblies, parties, and projects.

The Kayettes divided the club into eight teams. White was for religion, blue for service, red for publicity, green for recreation, purple for programs, and yellow for fine arts. Two new teams were orange for enthusiasm and pink for friendliness. A successful membership drive totaled 360 members.

Miss Wanda Mae Vinson, state director of Kayettes, delivered the Thanksgiving message at the "dress-up" assembly.

The Snowball was a big project for the entire club. Members made posters for the cafeteria, collected mittens for the "mitten trees," and gave $24 to Meals for Millions.

Among other projects carried out during the year were Nylons for Japan, "Janitor's Week," Save the Children's Federation, CARE, and aid to the Children's Emergency Shelter Home.

Other activities were selling and delivering singing valentines, Kayette choir, check room at plays, and May baskets for the hospitals.

"Will you go to the polls and vote?" inquires Margaret England, senior board member. Susie Collins and Birdella Black observe her tactics as the get out and vote campaign gets under way.

Saturday morning finds Carol Martin, Mary Carey, Barbara Hughes, and Martha Anderson prepared to sling paint on murals.

Placing the finishing touch on the H-Club chorus line's costumes, which was a new way of saying Merry Christmas, are Kayettes at a Saturday session.

"Chestnuts roasting on an open fire," sings Jane Tongate at the floorshow in the auditorium. Adding to the entertainment were the Nocturnes, senior girls' chorus line, and the H-Club chorus line.

All decked out in semi-formal dress are Shirley Fox and Ronnie Montandon, Jane Hutton and Charles Anderson, Dale Farney and Judy Scanland, Bobette Kramer and Charles Black, Karen Ford and Bill Williams.

kayettes transform cafeteria into 'winter fantasia'

While creating a "Winter Fantasia," the Kayettes were seen early Saturday mornings making stars, coaching the senior lettermen in the art of dancing, and preparing a floorshow.

The high school cafeteria, decked in blue and green crepe paper and a white tree as the centerpiece, was the setting for the 248 couples who attended.

Getting in on the dirty work after the Snowball is Miss Marie Stewart, sponsor.

palette and brush

work on paintings, posters, art exhibits, ku trip

Palette and Brush, the paint-slingingest club in HHS, again enjoyed a year of activities centered around the members' interest in art.

The club's year started off with a bang at the annual initiation picnic. The picnic was held at the Mayfield farm in the midst of a rainstorm but, regardless, the members had a splashing good time.

Throughout the year, Palette and Brush members put their artistic talents to work in decorating the school for the holidays, school dances, and different campaigns. The club has the largest active membership since its organization and all of the members participated in at least one of the club's projects.

Sponsoring the club for the eleventh year was Mr. Warren Brown.

Putting her talents to good use is Rita Harrington, club president.

Workin' hard or hardly workin' are Patti Hageman, Lane Livingston, and Sherrill Johnson.

"An Analysis of Beatnik Art" was the subject of a typical Palette and Brush meeting in which the members displayed their acting talents as well as their artistic flair.

"Oh Barf," expounds Barry Hilleary, club vice president.

Mr. Brown, club sponsor, discusses an issue at a Palette and Brush board meeting. Sitting in are Rita Harrington, Lana Ratliff, Jean Graham, and Mary Carey.

Explaining the finer points of jewelry making are Janice Goldsmith, Bob Harmon, and Carolyn Ragsdale.

Highpoint of the year for club members is the annual KU art trip.

"Decidedly warm, this!", thinks Jamie Krieg as he welds another point on the Christmas star which was built and designed by Palette and Brush club members.

club helps to prepare students for atomic age

Valence club, oldest organization of Hutchinson high school, was founded in 1917. Since then it has helped to prepare many students for this scientific era.

In 1961, its forty-fourth year of existence, the club heard talks on various aspects of physics and chemistry such as paper making, uses of salt, distribution of gases by pipeline, and scientific methods of crime detection. Two Bell Telephone films about early warning systems for an air attack and the Echo satellite were viewed.

The club was open to any student who had had a year of science and formed the nuclei of science-minded students of Hutchinson high school.

Trying out the beam balance scales, part of the new physics equipment, is President Barbara Lamb. Looking on are Jerry Wilbeck, vice president, and Leslie Siegrist, secretary-treasurer.

Speaking to club members on the uses of salt is Paul Imes, a chemist at Carey Industries.

Head sponsor Max Hamilton sits back and listens to someone else talk about science at a Valence club meeting.

A typical meeting displays varied expressions as members listen to a talk by Paul Imes.

Co-ed Counselors, an eight-year-old organization designed to help sophomores through their first year of high school, increased its membership this year. The senior girls were selected by Miss Mary Petty, girls' counselor, for leadership, personality, friendliness, and scholarship.

Each Co-ed Counselor was assigned three girls. In the summer the sophomores were entertained at coke parties or barbecues given by their counselors. A large coke party was held in the cafeteria at the first of the school year for all the counselors and their girls.

Co-ed Counselors acted as guides the first few days of school and as hostesses during Open House. Dating and college life were the themes of program meetings during the year. In December they sponsored a chili supper before the first Newton basketball game.

At the end of the year, programs were presented to the freshmen of the junior highs introducing high school life to them.

hi-y

club writes bills;

publishes student directory

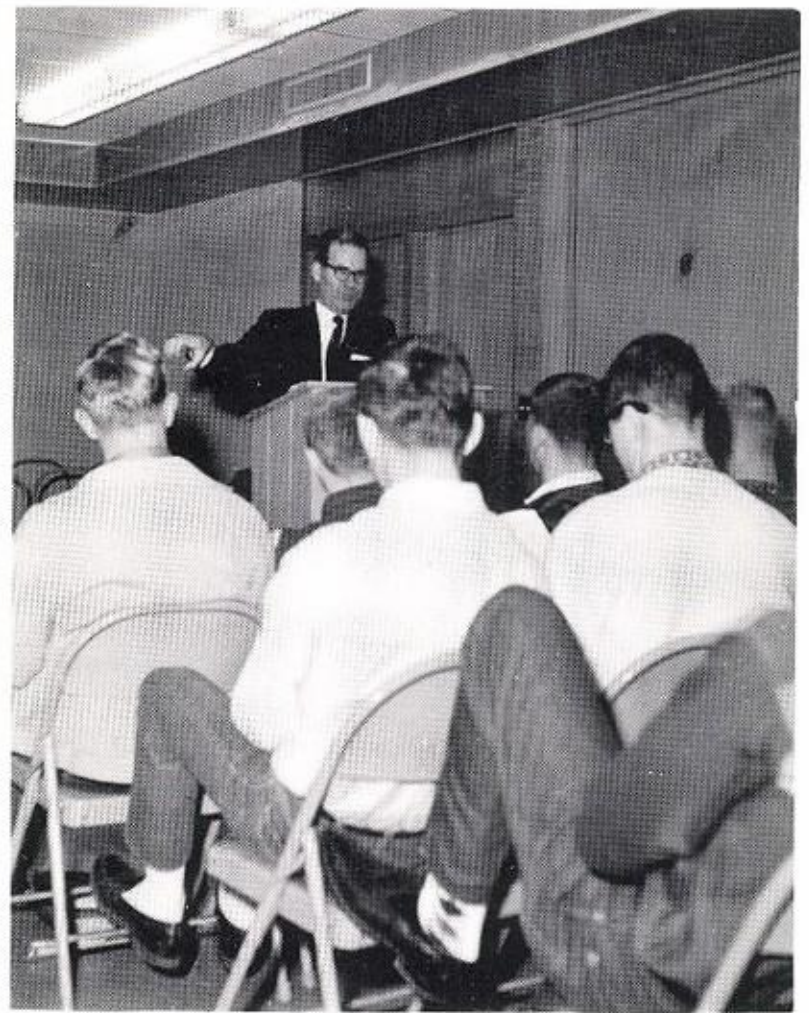

Hi-Y, with a membership of 50 boys, had a busy year. The main purpose of Hi-Y was to be of service to the community and the student body.

Members financed the club by running a concession stand at home football games. Along with sling hash, advertisements were sold to businesses in Hutchinson. This money paid for the publishing of the student directory, an annual project of Hi-Y. The directory was given to the student body and faculty.

The climax of the club year was model legislature held in Topeka. Boys from clubs over the state formed two houses and tried to pass laws similar to those in the state house.

Meetings during the year consisted of speakers ranging from law enforcement agents to ministers. The last meeting was the annual picnic at Carey Park.

"Take a few extra," says Hi-Y President Ken Opdycke as Jack Harris picks up student directories for his homeroom. Looking on are Rocky Summers and head sponsor, Mr. Harold Pryor.

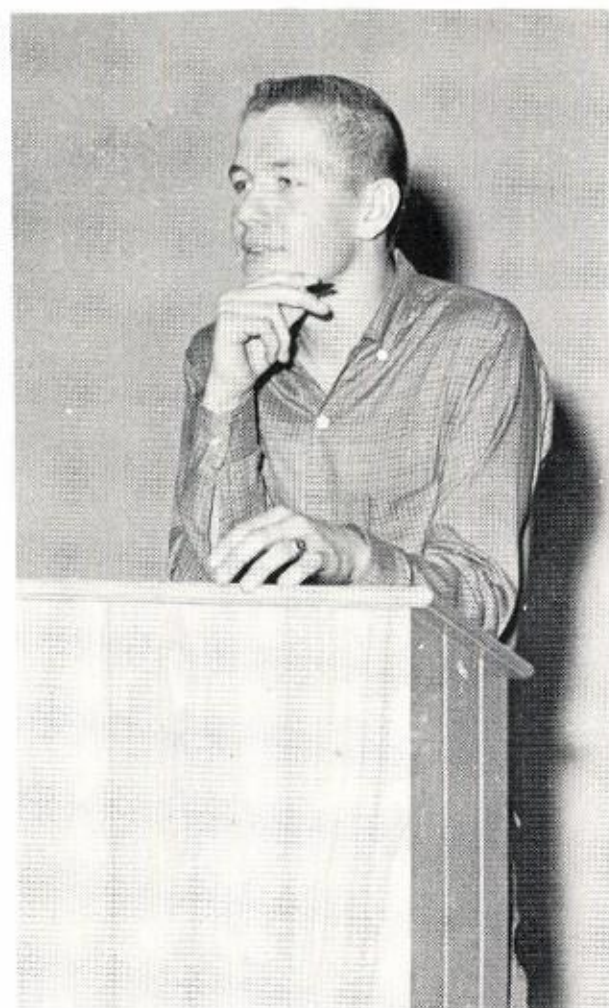

Listing the merits of the ministry is the Rev. Harold Mallett as he addresses a club meeting.

"Now look here you guys," remarks Erland Crupper, program chairman, as he subtly expresses his opinion. Listening are Treasurer Doyle Brightenburg; Vice President Larry Douglas; President Ken Opdycke; and Dennis Brown, secretary.

"Say we ought to have girls here more often," think Hi-Y members Harry Benjamin, Larry Douglas, and Lee Graham as they watch GAA members sell homecoming mums.

"Will you guys ever be ready?" asks President Ken Opdycke.

Sponsors, Mr. Harold Pryor and Mr. Claude Parks, dubiously wait for silence.

Finally, with things settled to a dull roar, members get down to business.

international organization*

Junior Red Cross, a branch of the Hutchinson chapter of the American Red Cross, met monthly. Its membership consisted of representatives from each of the 51 homerooms.

Among the projects sponsored by the organization was the annual School Chest, which was filled with supplies and sent to needy foreign schools. Christmas programs were presented at the hospitals, a layette project was completed, and candy bars were presented to homerooms with one hundred per cent membership, and a minimum contribution of five dollars. Also, a portable table magazine rack was donated to the bloodmobile.

The faculty advisers were Mrs. Esther Ogle, who has been the head sponsor for three years, and Miss Janice Nickel, who completed her initial year.

Checking to see which homerooms have one hundred per cent Junior Red Cross membership is Michelle Williams, president.

Making party hats to send to Winter General Hospital in Topeka, Kans., are Bonnie Wiens, treasurer; Nancy Bemis, secretary; and Kathy Connor, vice president.

Previewing a membership poster before Mrs. Esther Ogle, head sponsor, puts it up in a classroom is Sally Sargent.

annual activities keep the 'spanish cats' busy

President Vera Duarte, sponsor Mr. Stanton Shopmaker, and board members Birdella Black, Joe Castro, Kim Koontz, and Jackie Missildine took Los Gatos into their hands for the 1960-'61 year.

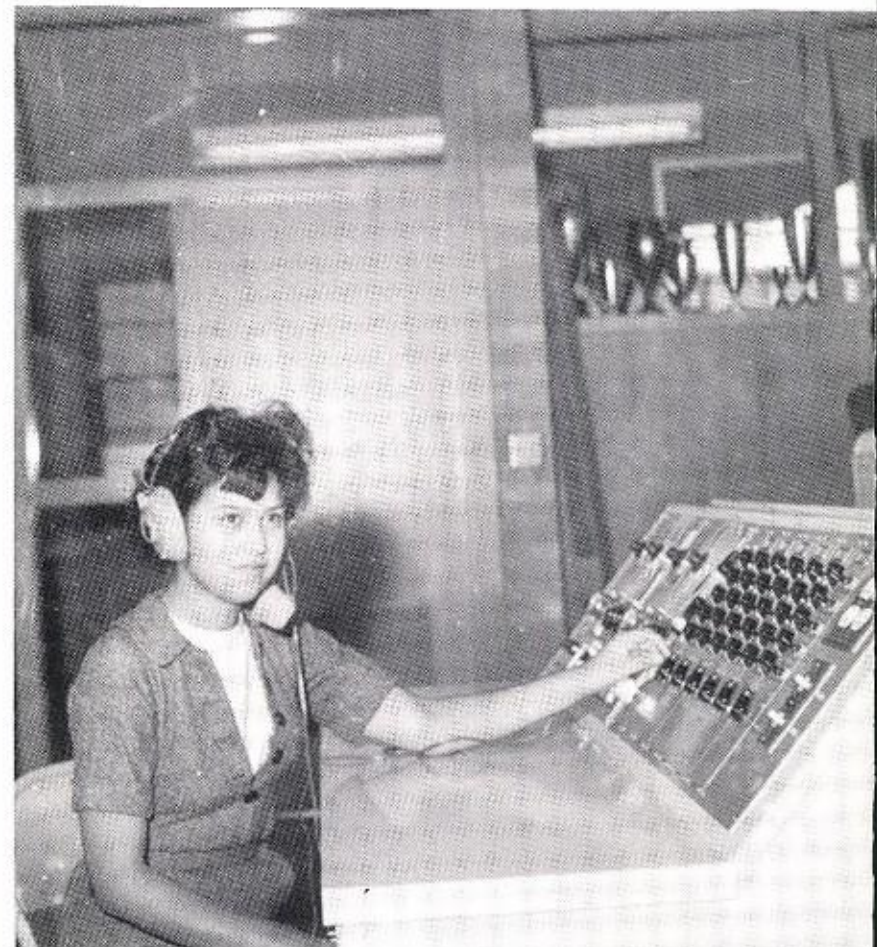

Los Gatos Espanoles, alias The Spanish Cats, scrambled for candy at the annual pinata party which added to the Christmas celebrations. This was held in the cafeteria. Members ventured to the University of Kansas in April for the observance of Cervantes Day. "The Cats" also sponsored a chili fiesta.

Making an assignment for his Spanish students is Mr. Stanton Shopmaker, who completed his first year as sponsor of Los Gatos.

Checking the cash book before a board meeting starts are Birdella Black, program chairman; Joe Castro, vice president; Kim Koontz, secretary; and Jackie Missildine, treasurer.

Which switch to turn on the language laboratory "switchboard" is Vera Duarte's problem. Vera is the club's president.

Singing traditional Christmas carols in Spanish are Mary Martinez, Lydia Garcia, Rachel Vieyra, Rosemary Pina, Karen Garcia, Sue Hainke, Connie Taylor, Cecilia Myers, Karen Haskard, Lori Piken, Nancy Colladay, Louise Allerheiligen, and Kem Koontz.

Wondering where everyone went are Eleanor Duarte and Barbara Ramos, alias "El Toro." Birdella Black is "El Matador" at the Christmas party.

What's cookin'?—concocting the main dish for the chili fiesta are Anne Clegg, Anita McGuire, and Jane White.

And one, two, three, four—Alice Rodriguez, Stella Martinez, and Eleanor Duarte entertain with a beatnik dance.

Senior English students Jane Tongate, Kathy Becker, Wanda Singleton, Doris Hildebrandt, Marian Richards, Jack Summers, Derroll Bretz, Sharry Scott, and Karyl Lee Brickey combine a literature study group session with fun.

Miss Ethelyn Flagg, school librarian, helps Joe O'Sullivan find information needed for a research paper. Also seeking assistance are Charles DeGraw and James Cole.

Attending a banquet given by the Hutchinson Council of Teachers of English are Miss Dorothy Dale, an unidentified guest, Superintendent of Schools Lowell A. Small, Director of Curriculum Mr. L. A. Noll, and Assistant Superintendent of Schools Mr. A. W. Miller. A centennial theme was used for the banquet.

Miss Doris Ely, chairman of the high school English teachers, begins the business part of a meeting. Teachers are Mr. Del Knauer, Mrs. Mary Ann Anders, Mrs. Ariel Perrill, Mr. John Poe, and Mrs. Renee Townley.

english teachers discuss problems at departmental meetings

During the year the English teachers met several times for departmental meetings. The sophomore teachers met the second Thursday, the junior teachers the third Wednesday, and the two senior teachers met the fourth Wednesday of each month. A joint meeting was held Jan. 25. Textbook adoption was the main topic of discussion.

During October and November sophomore and junior English classes spent class periods becoming acquainted with the new library. Senior classes spent several days in the library doing research work for themes concerning medieval English history.

The cafeteria was the setting for a banquet held in January for two-hundred members of the Hutchinson Council of Teachers of English. After the banquet Miss Dorothy Dale, program chairman, was mistress-of-ceremonies for a program held in the auditorium showing the correlation between music and English.

It's "junior research paper time" and juniors in Mrs. Doris Lyman's fifth hour class spend time in the school library gathering information.

move to new building;

set up shop

One of the most difficult jobs of moving into the new high school building was the transfer of the heavy, bulky printing equipment to the spacious brick building which it now occupies.

After the linotypes, presses, and other equipment were set up, the twelve boys enrolled in vocational printing performed the task of printing the weekly BUZZ. Aside from this, they printed school forms, athletic programs, tickets, and play programs. They also printed the student handbook and Open House programs.

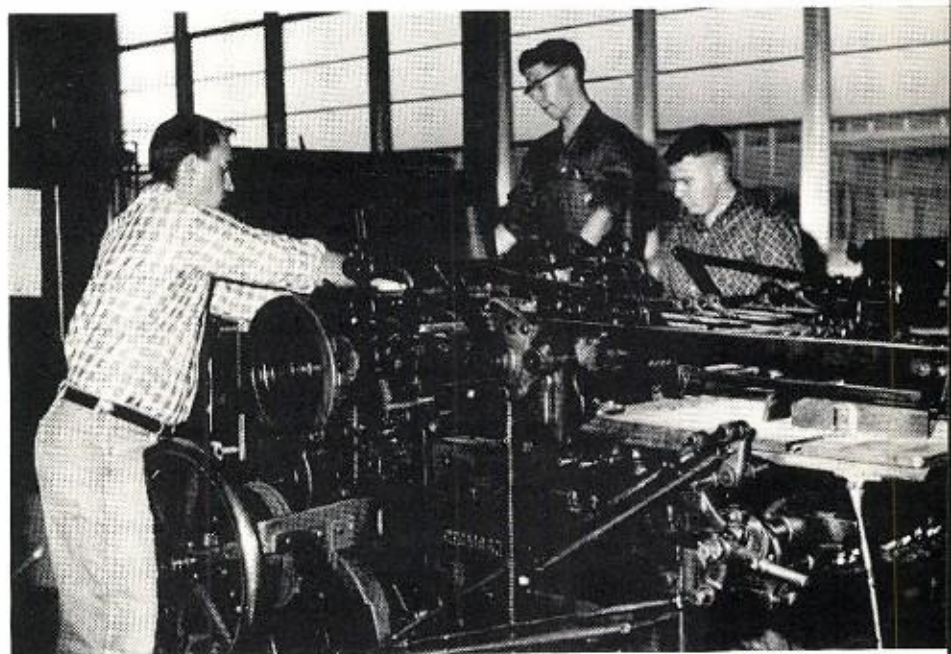

The HHS printing department opened a new area this year. With the purchase of new equipment, offset photography was introduced.

"Only a hundred more," think Jim Schuman, John Harr, Larry Redgate, and Dean Rank as they finish stapling basketball programs.

Giving instruction to David Sisk on a linotype is printing instructor, Mr. Walter Knox. Looking on are Larry McClure and Karl Alber.

Putting the Buzz to bed are Richard Magerfleisch, Bob Brooks, and Robert Barb.

Trying out the Robert's processing machine, part of the new printing equipment, are Richard Phillips and Ron Littleton.

Keeping Hutchinson high school in the winning column was not the only activity H-Club members were connected with. In the latter part of the football season, H-Club sponsored the annual homecoming dance for their first activity of the year.

Shortly before the Christmas holidays the H-Club chorus line, under their newly acquired name of the Jolly-J Roaches, made their annual appearance at the Snowball. Several unscheduled remarks by members of the chorus line livened up the exhibition.

Letters were awarded in January and May for boys earning letters first and second semester. This is done to assure scholastic eligibility.

During the fall and spring sports seasons the concession stands were operated by club members in order to finance the club. The largest part of this income was used for the spring picnic which rounded out the year.

Members of the 1959-'60 Buzz staff enjoy a swim in the Wheatheart Motel swimming pool at the annual spring initiation of the present staff.

Weekly "On the Go with Delco" inquiring reporter, Dale Coleman, asks fellow journalism students Mary Adams and Jan Turner their opinions on the closed noon hour.

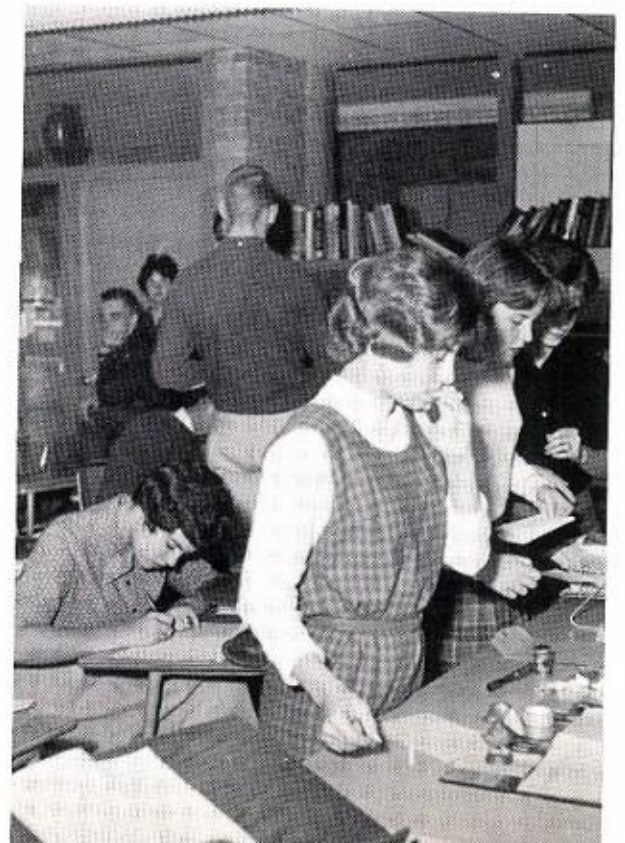

You missed one!—Paul Schmucker teases Sheila Reynolds, Cathy Zimmerman, Jim King, and Susan Murphey as they read galley proof for errors.

Making fun on "Derail the Railroaders" day in December are Buzz reporters and photographers Paul Schmucker, Dale Coleman, Dick Miller, Bill Darnell, John Williamson, Larry Magyar, a rebel in Buzz class, Gil Pickenpaugh, Frank Gordon, and Jim King.

Buzz students who have turned in their assigned stories relax in the background while Ann Moore, Jackie Missildine, Margo Lyman, and Jane Welchons take care of "deadline details."

Donna Gaeddert, Mary Adams, Marilyn Dunn, Sharon Young, Jan Turner, and Jane Welchons look over page proof before sending it to the print shop for final printing.

The 1960-'61 Buzz staff had one major adjustment to make in transferring newspaper production to the new high school building. Distributing the Buzz every Thursday during a "split" lunch hour had staff members and sponsor, Mrs. Aylene Keown, stumped. The problem was solved by setting up a table in the lobby of the auditorium during the lunch period. Upon showing their identification cards, students were given their weekly newspaper.

Overcoming this difficulty the Buzz staff concentrated on learning the basic rules of newspaper production. Writing news stories, features, sports, and editorials was practiced and, finally, put in print. The first-year journalists learned to read galley and page proof, set up ads and to lay out pages. By the end of the first semester the junior journalists had published eleven issues of the Buzz and gained experience for production of next year's Allagaroo.

The 1960-'61 staff ended the year with a swimming party in honor of the incoming 1961-'62 Buzz staff.

Buzz printer Larry Redgate demonstrates the linotype machine to reporters Cheryl Dunlop, Jan Coberly, Jackie Missildine, and Mary Carey.

Sports reporters Jim King, Bill Darnell, Paul Schmucker, Dick Miller, and Frank Gordon wonder what their assignments will be as Lee Gordon, sports editor, appoints Dale Coleman to a Friday night game.

"Well, we did it again—another great Buzz!" boasts Lee Gordon as he and his sports reporters praise the finished product.

"Don't scratch that negative!" screams a panic-stricken voice in the room at the end of "B" wing. Over the din is heard, "But that's my picture and you've cropped it too small!" From the twenty-nine senior journalists came this busy confusion as the staff worked to produce a yearbook that told through pictures the first year in the new school building.

In January the Allagaroo staff nominated six senior boys as candidates for Allagaroo King. Joe Newlon was elected to the royal position and was crowned by Kent Britt, yearbook editor, at the journalism dance. Mr. and Mrs. Lowell A. Small; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Guy; Allagaroo dedicatee, Mrs. Doris Lyman; and the Allagaroo King attended the staff's annual banquet in the spring. The yearly signing party marked the end of the beginning of the new home of HHS, and another year had been captured through pictures in the Allagaroo.

"Hey gang, help me think of a headline," asks Marcia Ebright of Joan Burger, Carol Martin, Janet Symns, Keith Swigger, and Mary Beth Young.

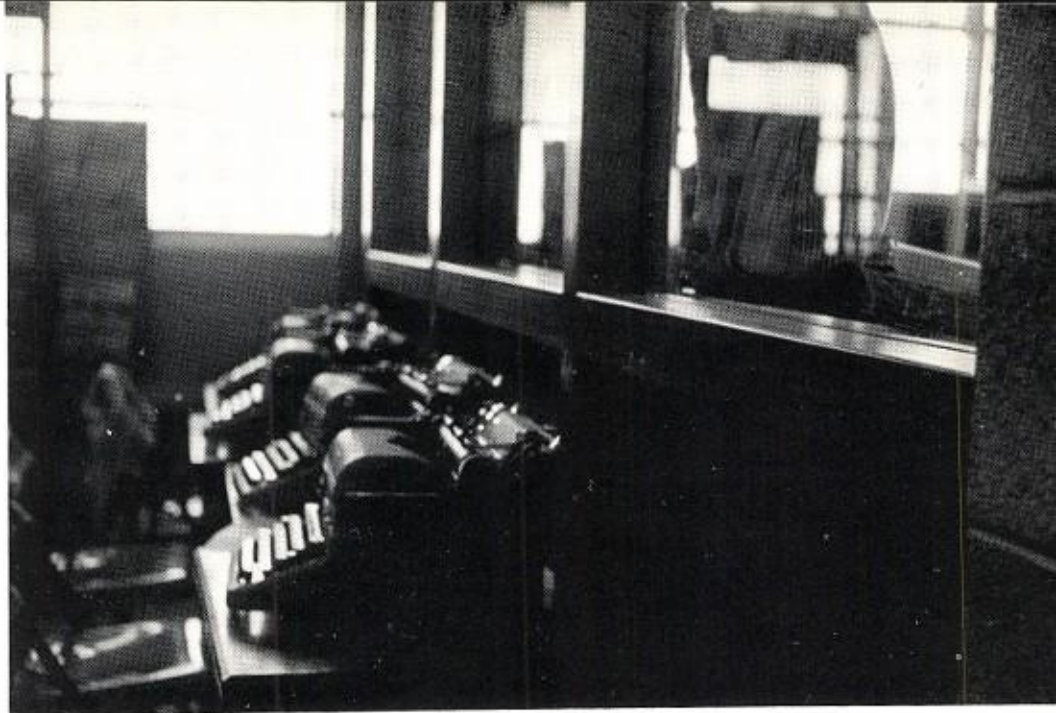

Concentration . . . staff artist Barry Hilleary works on sketches for division pages.

"Somebody talking to me?" Jim Ludwig inquires. Other workers in the lab are Harry Chabin, Sarah Seshier, and Barry Hilleary.

The staff relaxes and takes time out to have a coke during Mrs. Keown's birthday party.

The 1961 Allagaroo is finished and the typewriters in the journalism lab take a much needed rest.

Back to work...there are problems to be discussed, pictures to be chosen, and layouts to be drawn.

Marcia Harmon crops a picture while she, Alice Jane Reed, and Nancy Baker work in the lab.

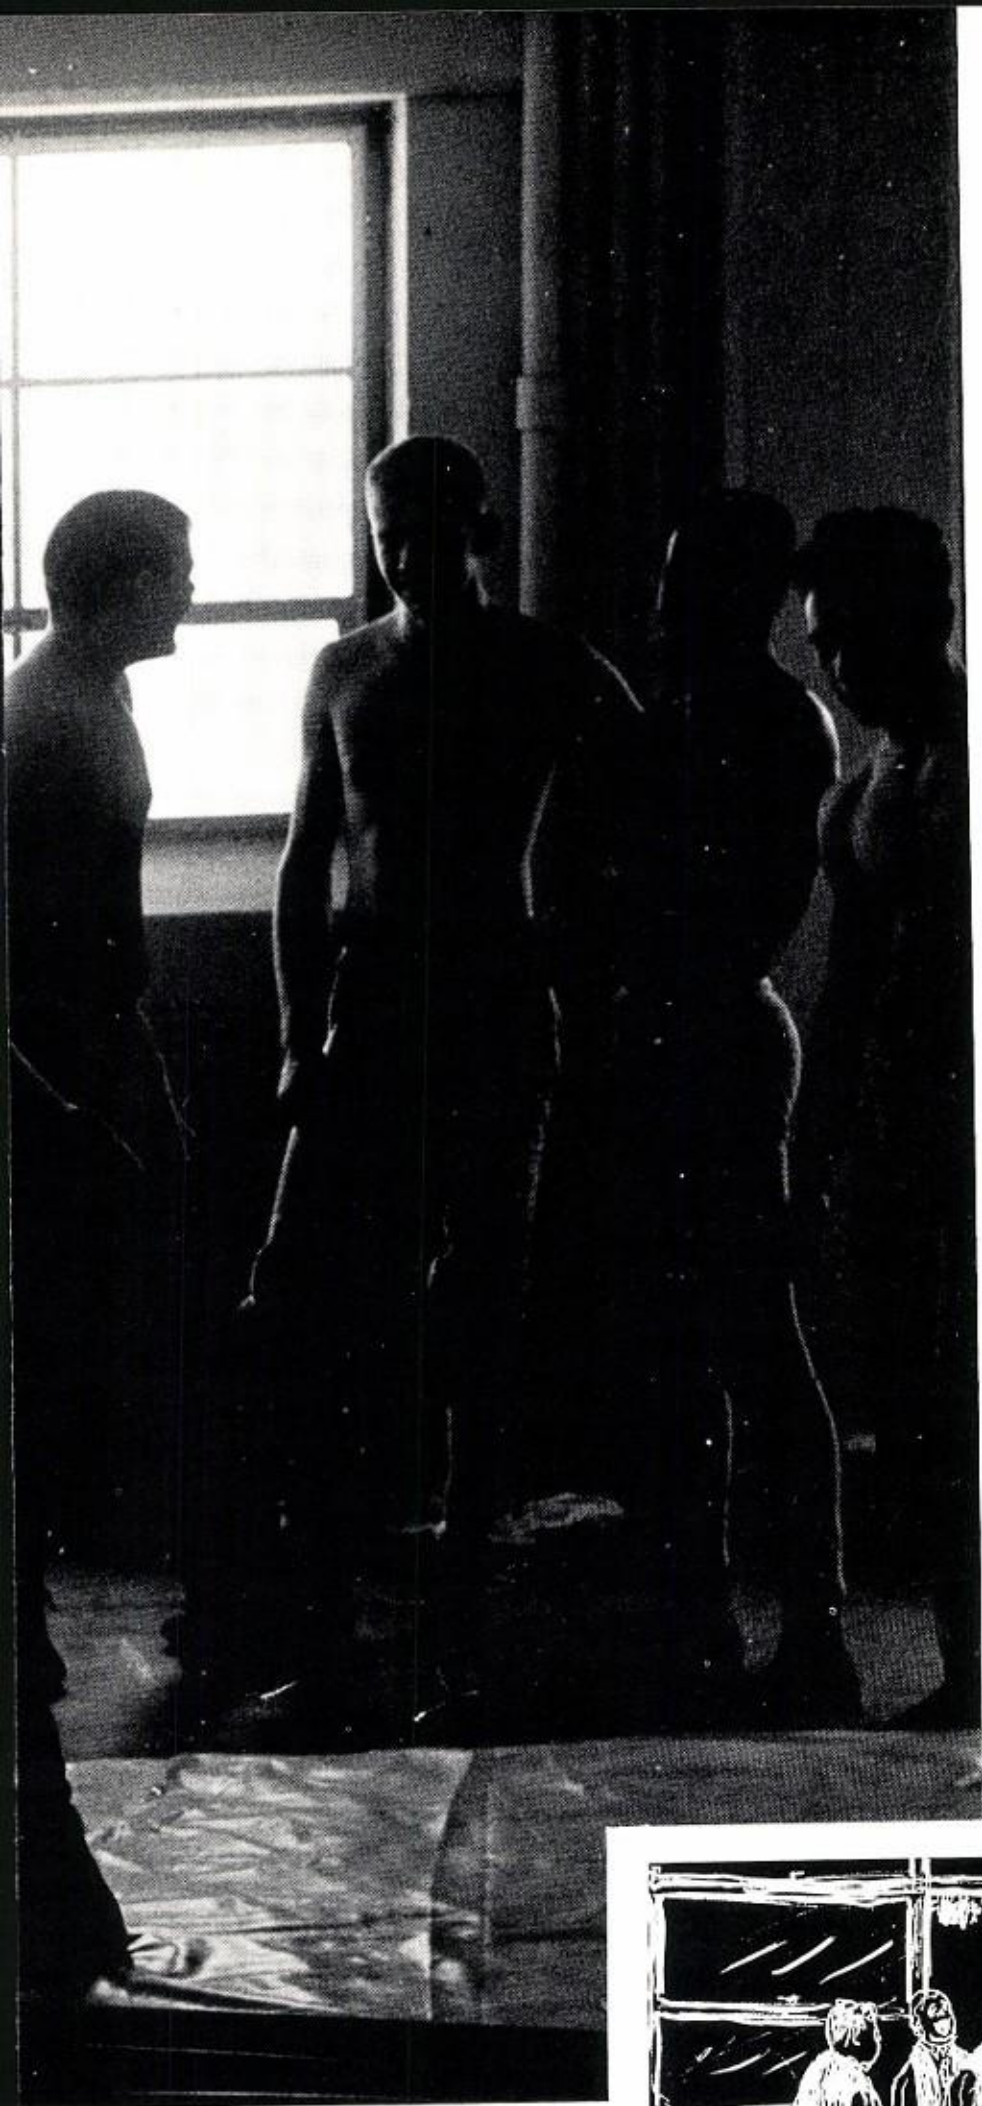

"These are your 1961 Allagaroo King candidates," says Kent Britt, Allagaroo editor, at the presentation assembly. Candidates and their escorts are Stu Steele and Joan Burger, Charles Nichols and Lois Ann Janner, Fred Littooy and Nancy Baker, Bruce Ferris and Janet Symns, Joe Newlon and Carol Martin, Richard Perry and Dee Ann Freidenberger.

hawks start '60 season with eleven returning lettermen

A squad of forty-five boys reported for the first practice session in August. With only one regular starter from the eleven returning lettermen, the Hawks prepared for one of the roughest schedules ever.

Sports writers rated Hutchinson high in the Ark Valley League before the season. There were disappointments in store for the team, however, and it ended the season with a three-won, six-lost record. Most of the teams that beat the Hawks were highly rated in the state by the Associated Press.

The opening game pitted the Hawks against a powerful Great Bend team. The fans had hardly gotten to their seats when Great Bend's Jerry Condit raced forty yards for a touchdown. The play was called back due to a penalty and the Panthers didn't score again until the second quarter. The only Hutchinson score came when Lavern Walters went over from the one-yard line. Great Bend won the game 19 to 6.

The next game saw the Hawks traveling to Wichita Southeast. With only a minute left to play on a mud-coated field, the Buffs regained possession of the ball and marched 82 yards to score and tie-up the game. The extra point put them ahead and they won 7 to 6.

A fired up El Dorado team was the next opponent. The Wildcats struck early in the game and Hutchinson never got back on its feet. Lavern Walters and Joe Newlon scored for the Hawks. El Dorado passed the goal line three more times and the game ended 27 to 12.

"This ought to go," points out "Irish" Ireland to co-captain Stu Steele during a time out.

Hungry for a victory, the Hawks journeyed to Winfield. Hutchinson scored in the opening quarter with a pass from Barry Greenfield to Bob Atkinson. Atkinson lateraled to Stu Steele who traveled the remaining 26 yards. The conversion kick was wide. The Hawks led all the way and the final score was 6 to 0.

Next on the schedule was Wichita West. The Pioneers had only been defeated once and were highly rated in the state. The Hawks were trailing 0 to 6 at the half. The team came out fighting in the second half and in a short two-minute period scored two touchdowns and the extra points to go with them and led by a 14 to 6 margin. Bill Atkinson charged through the line and raced 89 yards for the first tally. The second came when Bob Sperling blocked a punt and fell on it in the end zone. Van Clark booted the extra point for both of these.

It seemed that Hutchinson had found a winning way until they met Wichita North. The Hawks were outclassed all the way and could only muster 33 yards against the big North line. The Hawks' only score came from a ten-yard pass from Stu Steele to Mel Howell. The conversion kick was no good and the score was 6 to 0. North contained the Hawks and scored three touchdowns and two extra points and then took the game 20 to 6.

Wellington was next for the Hawks. If they could win this game they could salvage a winning season. But things didn't work out that way. The Crusaders scored on their first series of downs. Hutchinson retaliated, making the score 6 to 7. It was a hard fought game, with Wellington and Hutchinson scoring back and forth, but the Crusaders came out on top by a 21 to 13 score.

Ark City scored once more and so did Hutchinson on a pass from Stu Steele to Doug Kinley. The Hawks were again on the low end, 32 to 13.

Determined not to lose four straight, and especially one to Newton, the Hawks traveled east with but one purpose, to win. Jack Summers, Lavern Walters, and Joe Newlon made one tally each, and Stu Steele made two. The traditionally rough game saw both teams having players removed from the game. But when it was all over the Hawks had won a decisive victory of 35 to 14.

hawks take valley and down newton twice

The basketball team of 1960-'61 made history. The Ark Valley championship was won hands down for the second time in the history of the school.

Coach Joe Krafels led the team to his best season at Hutchinson. With three returning lettermen the Hawks compiled a 16-5 season record before losing to the sharpshooting Hays Cadets in the regional finals.

The balance of the team proved the deciding factor in many games as stopping five shooters proved too much for most teams. No individual scored as high as 20 points during the season.

Hutchinson was flying high when they met Wichita West in the opening game at Wichita on Dec. 2. As a result the Hawks ran out of oxygen to the tune of a 45-61 defeat.

Revived by the thought of beating top rival Newton, Hutch, leading all the way, sported a new zone defense and beat the Railroaders 48-34.

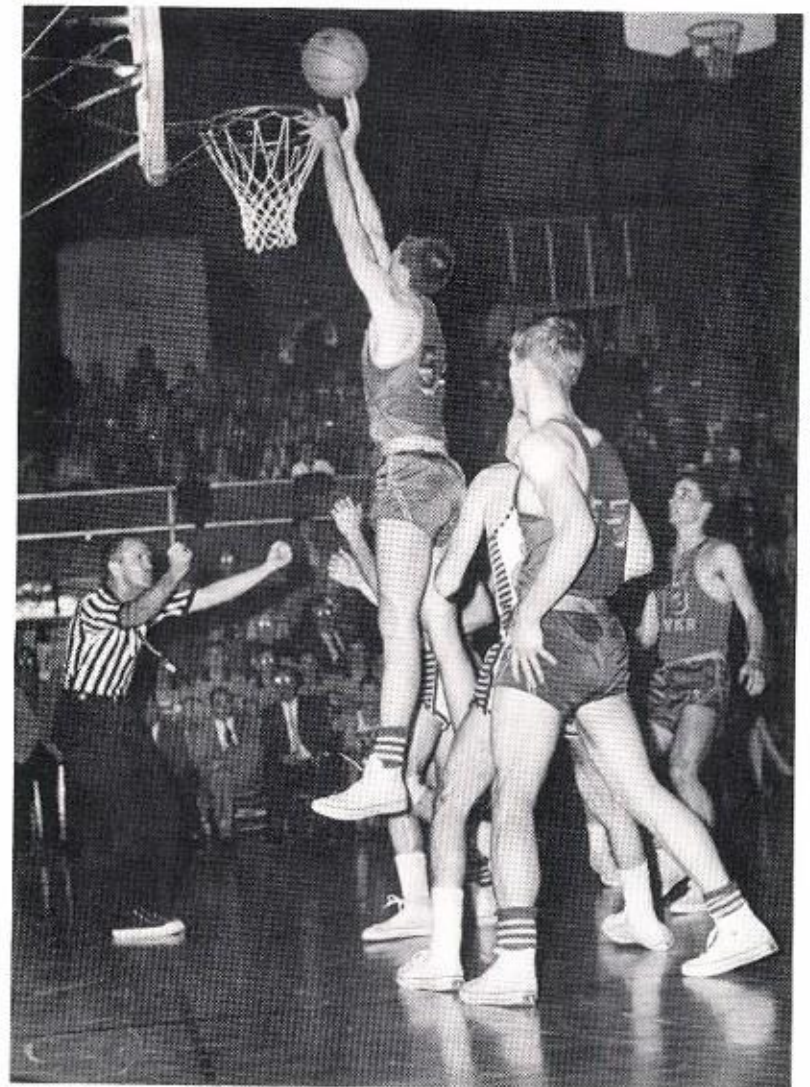

Wellington's Crusaders put a sudden end to the Hawks' high hopes. Their well-balanced attack defeated Hutch 35-48 for the only home loss of the year.

"My foot!" yells assistant coach, Don Newell. Unmoved by the questionable call are Head Coach Joe Krafels and David Hodge, senior manager.

On the wings of a snow-white dove is Bill Darnell as he blocks a shot in the Dodge City game.

Twanging on the rim is Fred Littooy as he tips in two points against Newton. Watching with confidence are Bill Darnell and Richard Smith.

SALT HAWK A TEAM—Fred Littooy, Doyle Brightenburg, Bill Darnell, Paul McShane, Stu Steele, Tim Kitch, Richard Smith, Gary Markle, Van Thompson, Bruce Swinney, Richard Perry, and Erland Crupper.

Finders keepers, thinks Stu Steele as he battles an Ark City player. Looking on is Richard Perry.

Wichita again proved a jinx to the Salters as the Southeast Buffaloes dropped the Hawks 57-53.

Hutch traveled to Ark City and whipped the Bulldogs 43-28, starting a nine-game Valley winning streak. Senior Doyle Brightenburg came off the bench to score 12 points and spark the Hawks.

Great Bend was next as guards Richard Smith and Richard Perry each scored 15 points in the 58-45 defeat of the non-league Panthers.

It was Friday, Jan. 13 when the Hawks dropped El Dorado 47-40 and found the unlucky day to their liking.

The Emporia Tournament was a rerun of the previous year. Hutch outscored Ward High of Kansas City 23 to 5 in the second quarter and coasted to a 75-62 victory. The championship game was frustrating as two Lawrence High players scored within two points of the total Hutch score. Stu Steele hit 18 points in the 51-67 loss.

Bouncing back, the Hawks went hunting and shot the Southeast Golden Buffaloes in a thriller going down to the last second. Doyle Brightenburg hit a 10 ft. jump shot with 4 seconds remaining to give the Hawks a 46-45 victory.

Balanced scoring was too much for the Winfield

Vikings. The Hawks dropped the Southern boys 49-36.

Littooy, Steele, Darnell, Perry, and Smith went all the way, defeating Newton twice in one year; the first time in twenty-one years. Behind 7 points, Hutch caught fire and pulled it out, winning 43-37 for the highlight of the year.

In the best played game of the year Hutch ran the Wichita North Redskins back to the "happy hunting grounds." The Hawks worked the fast-break continually as they outscored the Red Men 28-13 in the last quarter. Stu Steele led in scoring with 18 points. Richard Smith hit 7 for 7 field goals and scored 16 points. The final score was 76-56.

Revenge was in order when the Salters took the floor Feb. 10 at Wellington. The Crusaders fell before the soaring Hawks, 55-50.

Dodge City rode many miles to the Sports Arena and rode back with a 57-52 defeat hanging over them. Stu Steele hit his high of the season, and for an individual, with 19 points.

The Ark Valley title was clinched Feb. 17 when Hutch defeated Ark City. Newton was defeated to ice the crown. A 46-38 defeat was collared to the Bulldogs in the last home game of the season.

The Valley was already won but there was no let-down. The Salters dropped El Dorado 69-48 in a hotly contested game.

Winfield became number nine; the ninth win in the Ark Valley and number nine in the win streak. The Hawks finished out the regular season with a 67-42 victory over the Vikings.

The regional tournament at Great Bend started Mar. 2. The Garden City Buffaloes were completely buffaloed as all ten Hawks figured in the scoring in the 74-46 victory. Reserves played half of the game and junior high-point man, Bill Darnell, scored 16 points although he was a non-starter.

Liberal was next on the list. The Hawks defeated the Redskins 68-60, putting Hutch in the finals. Fred Littooy hit 18 points for his best scoring effort of the year. Stu Steele and Bill Darnell were close behind with 16 and 15 points respectively.

The Cadets of St. Joseph's Military Academy from Hays put the Hawks down to stay. Trailing only one point at half time, the Hawks, in the second half, went scoreless while the Cadets bagged 12 quick points. The deficit was too much to overcome. Hutch lost 42-65. The Salt Hawks of '60-'61 had accomplished a desire of every team for 21 years before them, beating Newton twice and winning the Ark Valley.

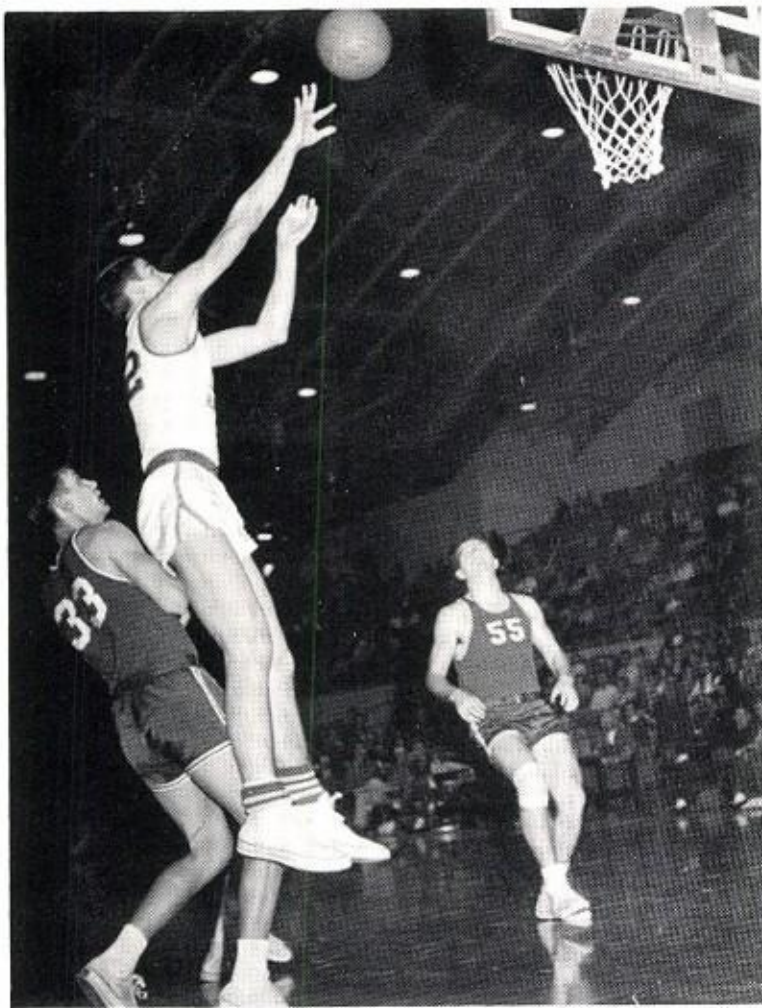

SALT HAWK C TEAM—Front Row: Dell Paschal, Bill Terry, Van Clark, Jerry Farney, and Frank Stanfield. Second Row: Steve Howey, Bill Davis, John McShane, Ron Werner, and Tim Richards.

Let's all join hands—Fred Littooy and Doyle Brightenburg fight for the rebound in the title game with Ark City.

Richard Smith led the team in field goal percentage. Smith, although playing guard, hit 100 per cent of his shots on two occasions. Smith also led in free throw percentage. Top scorer was Stu Steele as he consistently scored in the double figures. Top rebounder was Fred Littooy.

Richard Perry was voted the most inspirational player on the squad. Junior postman Bill Darnell was voted the most improved player. Fred Littooy and Stu Steele were elected co-captains of the squad.

An all-opponent's team was chosen by the Salt Hawks. Lawrence High placed two boys on the team. The team consisted of Rinney Lockman, Wichita North; Jerry Thornton, Wichita West; Larry Weigle, Hays Cadets; Bill Royer, Lawrence; and Phil Lujan, Lawrence.

Coach Joe Krafels lettered seven seniors and one junior. They were Fred Littooy, Stu Steele, Richard Perry, Richard Smith, Paul McShane, Doyle Brightenburg, and Van Thompson, seniors; and Bill Darnell, junior.

"That's all, buddy," says Fred Littooy as he blocks a shot in the Winfield game. Watching are Bill Darnell and Richard Perry.

grapplers have slow start;

improve as season rolls along

This year's wrestling team had a slow start, but ended the season with an even slate of 5 wins and 5 losses.

The Hawks had only two returning lettermen. Of the 37 boys that made up the wrestling team, there were only four with varsity experience.

After losing their first two matches to Newton, 15-34, and Kinsley, 17-28, the grapplers journeyed to the Wichita West tournament, placed two wrestlers, and ended in 8th place.

Hutch next fell prey to Wellington, 14-32, and Salina, 8-38. But after four defeats the matmen beat Ark City, 33-8, Hutch then lost to the Wichita East team, 29-11, but upset the El Dorado matmen, 23-16.

The grapplers then grabbed three quick wins by beating Russell, 32-14; Kinsley, 51-3; and Winfield, 23-22.

The Salt Hawks rounded out dual competition by losing to top-rated Wichita North, 30-16.

In the AVL Hutch took 5th place but had no AVL champions. The next tournament was the district at Russell in which they placed 3rd. Oakley was the next stop and 8th place in the regionals was captured. The State tournament at Colby brought the season to a close and the Salt Hawks placed 24th.

Showing different reactions at a referee's call are members of the Salt Hawk team—Neal Edwards, manager, Artie Neuberger, John Konnesky, Joe Konnesky, Mel Avery, Dick Wells, Bill Scruggs, LaVern Walters, and David Wilson.

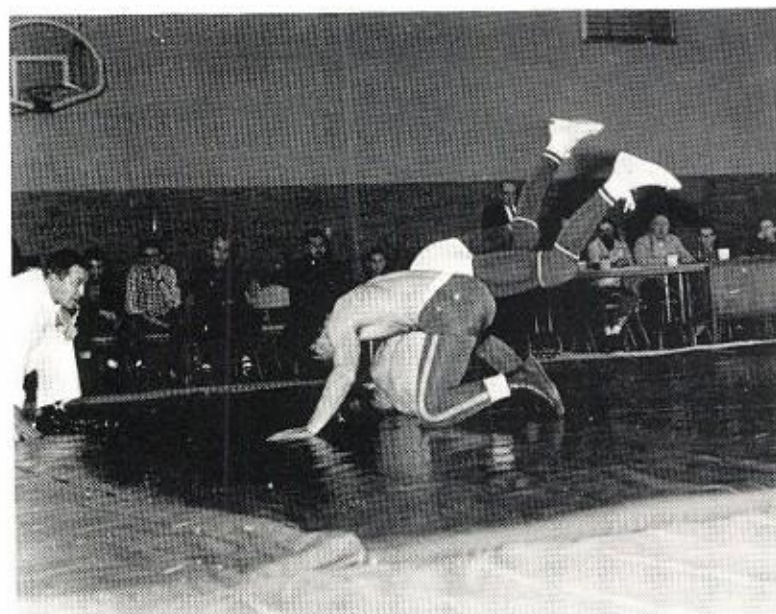

"And Away We Go" says Lavern Walters, heavyweight, as he escapes from Tagtmeyer of Goodland at the regional tournament at Oakley. Walters won 6-3.

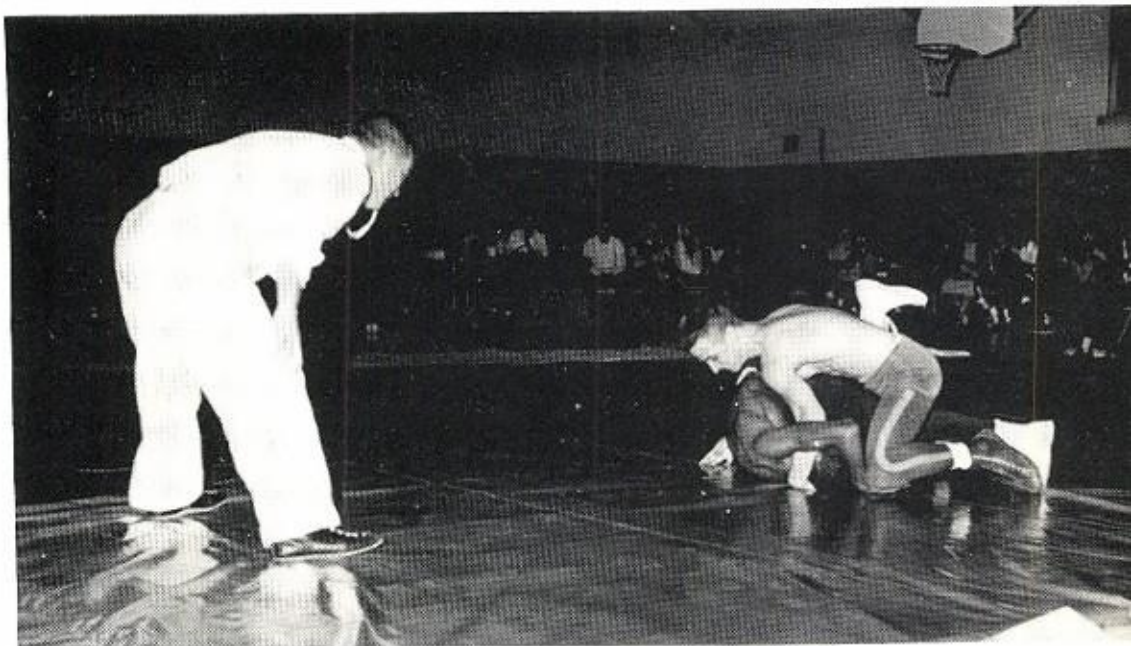

I wonder if this is going to hurt?—Bill Scruggs, Hutch matman, probably wonders as he is being dropped to the mat by M. Ostrander of Wellington. Scruggs lost the match by a fall.

Is it really a pleasure?—Howard Garvin seems to think so as he pins "Stormy" Johnson of Salina in the 112 lb. match. Referee is Bob Johnson.

Referee Bob Johnson looks on as Steve Smith of Hutchinson attempts to roll Lyle Katz of Kingsley into a pin hold. Smith pinned his opponent in this 145 lb. tussle.

cindermen vie for fourth straight avl title

For the first time in many seasons Coach "Woody" Kramer's tracksters practiced without the hindrance of cold weather.

The Salt Hawks started the season by entering a mile relay team in the Manhattan indoor meet on Mar. 18. The first meet in which the entire team participated was a dual meet with Great Bend at Gowans stadium. Hutchinson entered the Sterling Relays on Apr. 1, and continued to gain speed and experience through the Wichita East, Apr. 7; Great Bend, Apr. 14; and Newton relays, Apr. 21.

As the season matured, the cindermen played host at the annual Hutchinson Invitational on Apr. 28. The following week-end at Winfield, Hutchinson defended their AVL title for the fourth consecutive year. The Salt Hawks then returned to their home grounds for the regional meet where they qualified positions for the State meet at Manhattan.

"One more lap, son," says head track coach "Woody" Kramer. These few words become increasingly familiar as the season progresses.

"I wonder if he'll make it?" asks Bob Atkinson of Jim Reed and Bob Brown as his brother Bill Atkinson soars toward the bar.

coach and lettermen have high hopes for '61 season

With five returning lettermen the tennis team looked for an improvement in standings in '61.

Three varsity lettermen led the pack. They were Carl Detter, Vic Sisk, and Van Thompson, seniors. Filling in were Doyle Brightenburg and Bruce Swinney, seniors.

The 1960 squad placed third in the Ark Valley. Thompson placed second in the regional tournament at Hutchinson and then placed fourth in the state tournament at Manhattan.

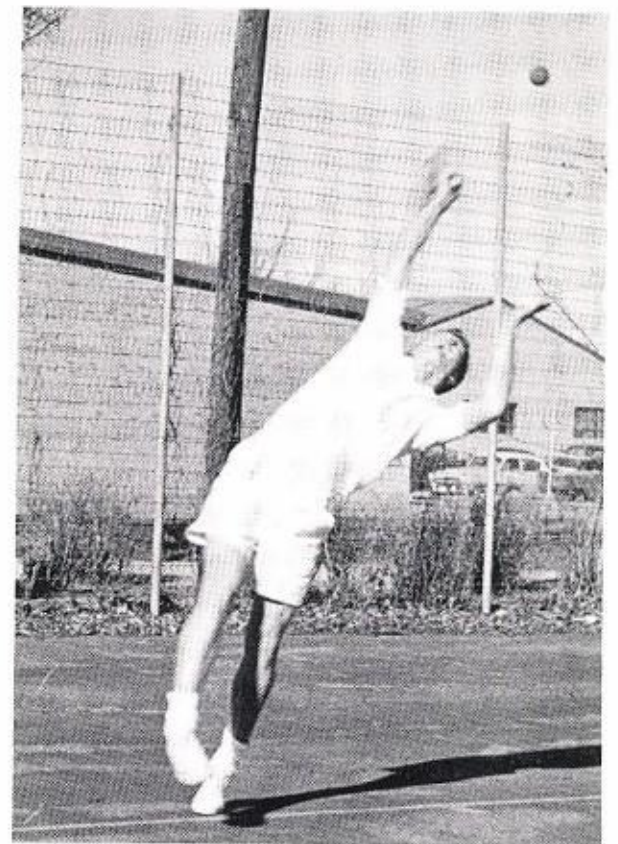

The first match this year was with Buhler, Mar. 22, on the Hutchinson courts.

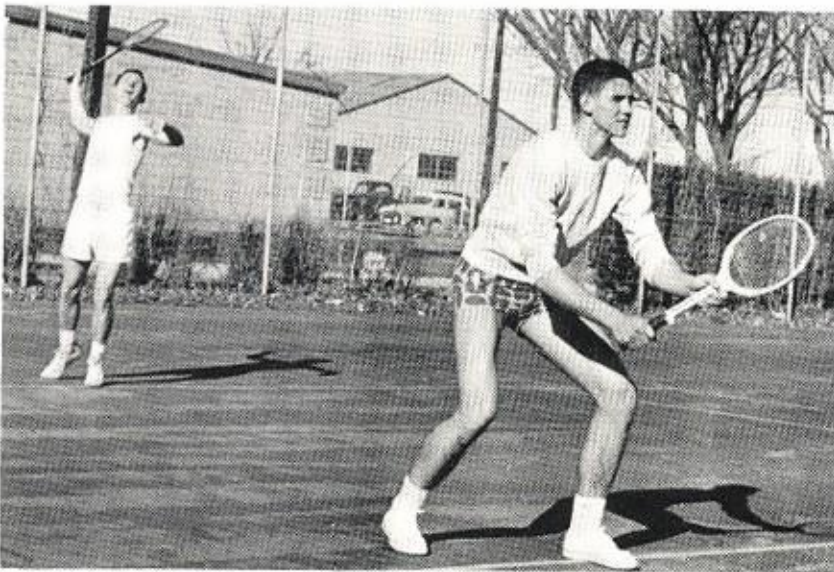

Vic Sisk, senior letterman, hits a backhand drive off the baseline.

Following a fore-hand drive is senior letterman Carl Detter.

state champs return, defend '60 title

The 1961 golf team got off to a good start early in the season. With three returning lettermen, the squad inherited a pretty large set of cleats to fill. Last year's 1960 crew compiled the best golf slate Hutchinson has ever had. The snow-bound '60 linksters were forced to postpone their activities until mid March. However, once started, the team didn't stop. Winning first place in 4-man competition in the Ark City Invitational and the Wichita Invitational, the golfers looked unbeatable. The Hutchinson victory streak ended at the Salina Invitational. Here the Hawks finished second, their only loss in the season.

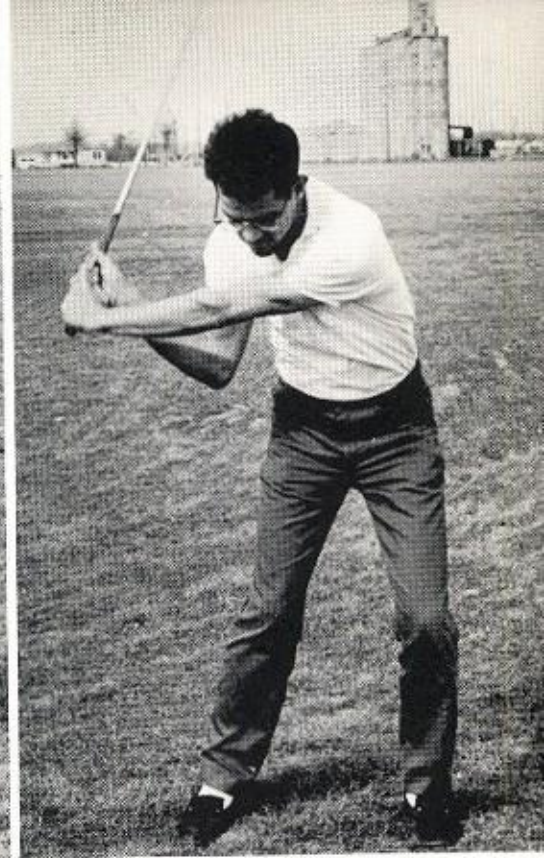

From Salina through the State tournament, the 4-man team of Jim Hardy, Alan Hamilton, David Bowman, and Rusty Hilst shot their way to firsts in every tournament. Dean Wingert and Chuck Fish, comprising the 2-man team, played well throughout the season and brought down third place in the State tournament at Lawrence.

The returning lettermen on the 1961 squad were seniors Jim Hardy and Dean Wingert. Chuck Fish, a junior, completed the trio of veterans.

Besides the lettermen, Coach Max Hamilton depended heavily on other squad members. Juniors Paul Schmucker, Lee Ewbanks, and Joe O'Sullivan looked promising in early season rounds.

Rarely empty during school hours, the cafeteria doubles as a study hall except during lunch hour.

"Man, this sure beats studying," thinks Kenny Mueller as he takes a bite of pizza during a lunch break. Janet Brown, Mary Carey, and Sharon Young seem to agree with him.

"Can I go now?" asks Don Strella after being "detained" for a while after school.

Another moving day...so workmen prepare to move equipment into the rooms of building B.

Waiting for latecomers to an a cappella bicycle jaunt are Randy Mettlen, Ron Herron, Gary Benjamin, Grant Mallett, and Mr. John Cooper.

The Hutch High victory flag flies again and jubilant Hawk fans run onto the Newton football field following the football victory over the Railroaders.

"Speed is essential," exclaims Linda Hoy as she rocks and rolls between classes on her new roller skates.

"Oh, my aching feet," think Margaret Brown, Pat Ireland, and Linda Cain as they trudge the halls in high heels on dress-up day.

"Go Hutch Go!" yell students as they take part in a pep rally held in the quadrangle.

Working diligently at the public library are Norma Gibbs and Wendel Strong.

Going all out for homecoming in their sloppy-day clothes are Jadey Swirles, Becky Banyard, Penny Kennard, and Dennis Ayers.

student life

after weeks of planning homecoming finally arrived

Leading the homecoming parade down Main Street is the Salt Hawk Marching Band.

"Hello out there!" waves Linda Hoy as she, Nancy Baker and Janet Symns bring up the rear of the Salt Hawk marching band and escort the pep section.

Winning third prize in the float contest is Mrs. Ora Kruse's sophomore homeroom. Waiting for the parade to start are Candy Whitlock and Debbie Johnson.

Second prize goes to students in Mr. Charles Lyons' homeroom. Riding on the float are Ann McGill and Myrna Ellis.

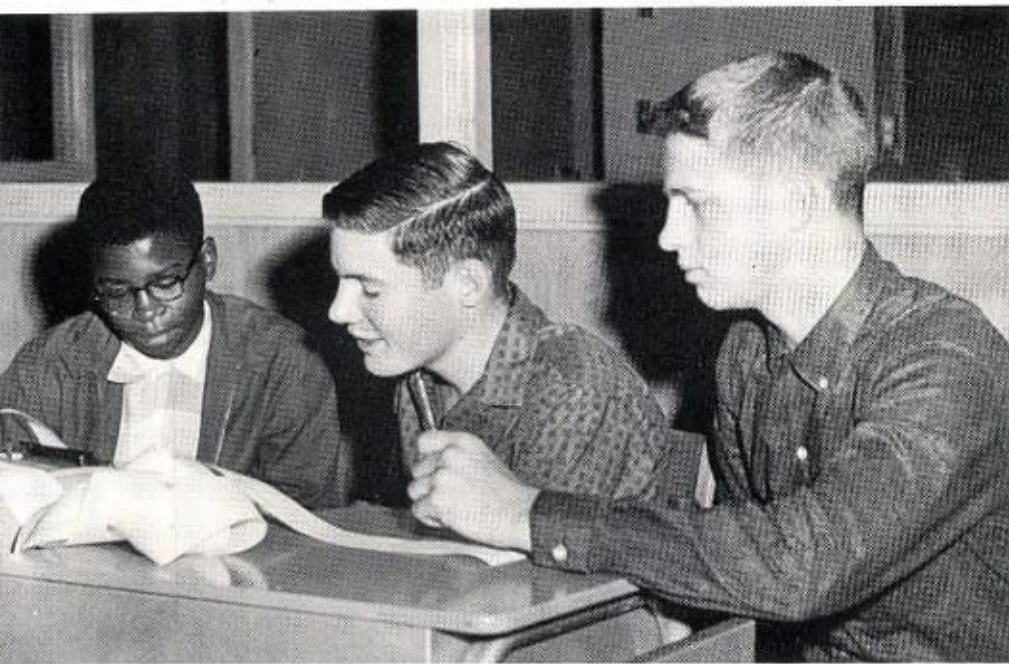

Putting the finishing touches on the first-place float, Graham-Daddy's Pad, are Judy Powers, Bobby Gonzales, Larry Roher, Sheryl Wilson, Frank Gordon, Jean Bland, and Mr. Darol Graham.

Joining in the fun are the auto-mechanics boys with Gary Ralston in the wagon and Jim Siemens on the bike.

"Christmas! Bah! Humbug!" shouts Barry Hilleary as he informs HHS kiddies that there is no Santa Claus at the Christmas assembly. Drum ensemble "tin" soldiers stand at attention in the background.

"Nixon's in the lead!" says Frank Gordon as he, George Reaves, and Gary Markle count votes during the national presidential election poll taken by an American history class.

Trying to crash the offensive line is Kirt Holloway. With his back against the wall is Bill Hughes before he fires a touch-down pass during a game of scooter football in the boys' gym.

Safecrackers? Not this time. It's only Tom Lappin and Ann Moore trying to master the new combinations on the lockers.

"Hey, hold those ropes tight!" is heard from the boys erecting the Kayette Christmas tree in the quadrangle.

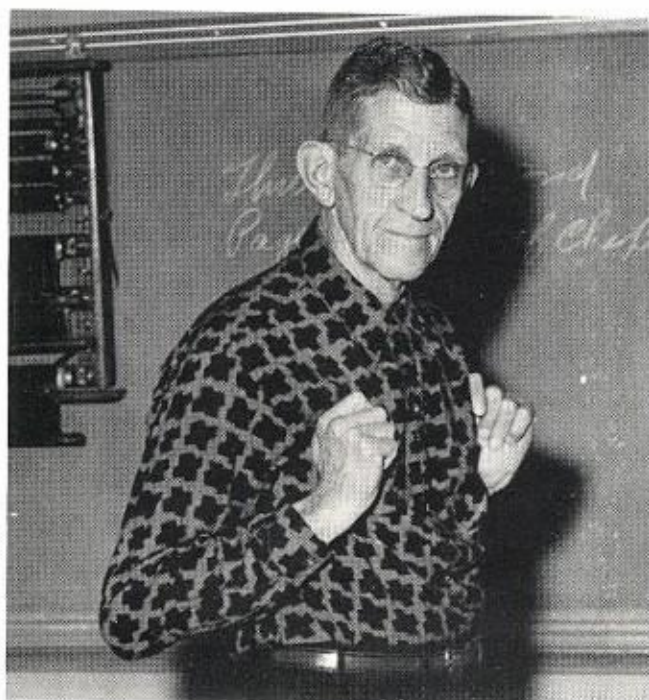

Polishing trophies after school was a project for the officers of the various clubs. Working diligently are Nancy Baker, Marcia Harmon, Steve Stout, Gerald Martens, Harry Benjamin, Kent Britt, Harry Chabin, and Carol Friesen.

Getting in the Christmas spirit are students in Mr. Stanton Shopmaker's homeroom. Gathered around are Mary Winter, John Kienzle, Joe Razo, Joe Castro, Randy Grant, Sharon Jennings, Stella Martinez, Gilbert Fields, Lee Gordon, Larry Lawrence, Charles Millspaugh, Sherrin Cole, Karen Rodgers, Gil Pickenpaugh, Sue Williams, Stephen Hurst, and Mary Ross.

Before—Modeling the shirt that was worn at the Salt Hawk's last victory on Newton's court twenty-one years ago is E. A. "Chop" Cairns.

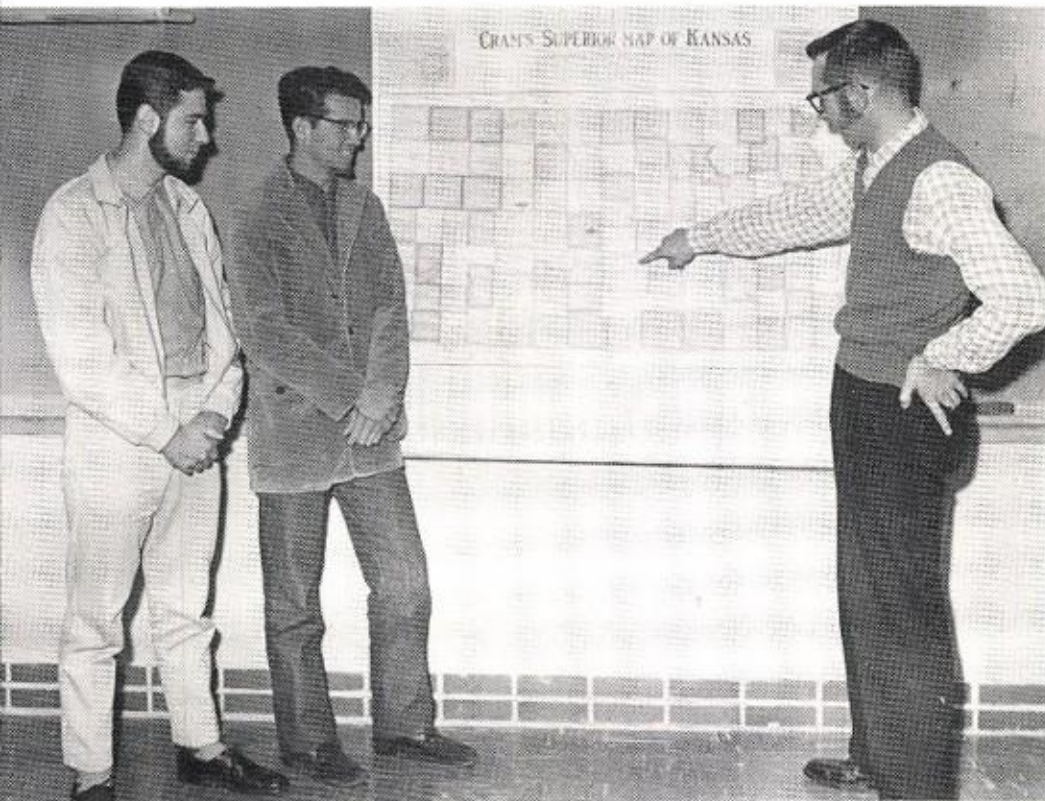

After—Following this years victory the shirt was presented to the school and flew beneath the Victory Flag.

"All right you guys, shut the door!" laughingly yells Van Thompson as he, John McShane, Harry Chabin, Mel Howell, Frank Blea, Tony Dean, and Eddie Fuller dress for the FBLA style show.

"Cheers!" Due to shortage of other beverages in the darkroom, photographer John Williamson quenches his thirst with a jug of photograph fixer. Other photographers are Dennis Brown, Russ LaVigne, John Williamson, Gil Pickenpaugh, and Jim Neal.

Beatniks in Kansas? No, Charles Nichols, Dean Wingert, and Mr. Homer Kruckenberg are celebrating the Kansas Centennial by growing out the whiskers.

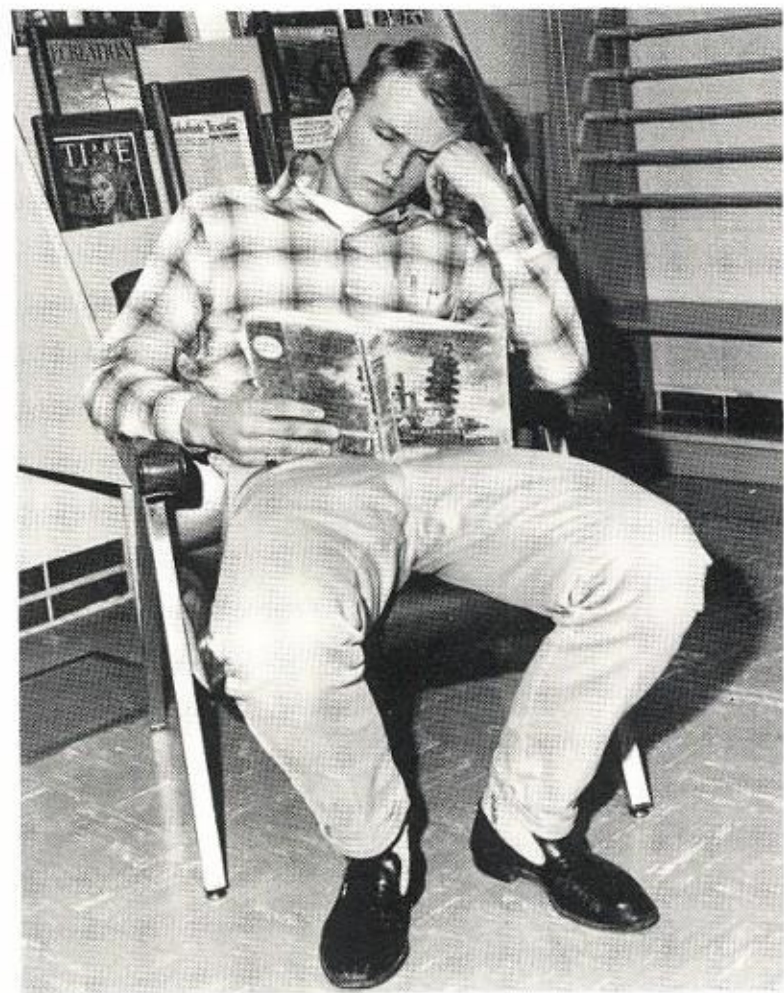

"Now I'll just glue this one on top of the others..." plots Nation Meyer as he gathers up his dishes in the cafeteria.

Lowell A. Small
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Lowell A. Small, as superintendent of Hutchinson's public education has been chief planner and co-ordinator for ten years. With ambition and foresight, Mr. Small keeps the vast machinery of the public schools running smoothly. He interviews and employs new teachers, plans the budget, and oversees construction of new buildings and additions.

He has a B.S. degree from Kansas Wesleyan University and an M.A. degree from the University of Colorado. His post-graduate work was done at the University of Missouri and Oregon State University. He holds an honorary degree of Doctor of Literature, is a member of the national honorary fraternity, Kappa Delta Phi, and is a past president of the Kansas State Teachers Association.

A dream come true—Mr. Small pauses during Open House, Nov. 13 and 14, to look with pride at the new HHS building.

Mr. W. W. Ferguson, president of the Board of Education, has been a member since 1954.

Mr. Ralph Thorne, elected in 1959, is vice president of the Board of Education.

Mr. Ralph Dunlop, elected to the Board in 1959, raises the Victory Flag for Hutchinson High.

Mr. Harry Coberly, looking over the mosaic in the library, retired from the Board this year. He had been a member since 1957.

Mr. Earl Pearce, clerk of the Board since 1951, inspects the new school.

Mrs. J. Richards Hunter, who retired this year, had been on the Board of Education since 1952.

Mr. William McDonough, in the patio of the art department, was appointed in 1960 to fill the vacancy of the Rev. Charles Dumond.

principal

gets operation of new school building running smoothly

Principal R. C. Guy Hutchinson High School

Addressing the assembled student body is Mr. Guy.

Mr. R. C. Guy has been principal of Hutchinson High School for eleven years. Ten of these years were spent at the old high school at Seventh and Walnut. He and the faculty looked forward to the move to the new high school building at Thirteenth and Severance last fall.

Principal Guy received his B.S. and M.A. degrees from Kansas State Teachers College at Pittsburg.

Having been the principal of a secondary school for some time, he views the American high school graduate as an equal to his European counterpart. "In fact," thinks Mr. Guy, "The American student gets a much more liberal education because the emphasis is not only on studies, but extra curricular activities as well."

Mr. Guy is of the opinion that the new school has worked out satisfactorily. "We faced many problems; some problems that we had anticipated never showed up, and then some we hadn't anticipated cropped-up. Next year should go smoother," he concluded.

Pausing during a busy day of absentees, tardies, and "sevenths," to glance at the floor plan of the school of which he is vice principal is Nels Havens.

Preparing to make an announcement over the public address system is Miss Pearl Clinton, a well known figure to all HHS students. Miss Clinton is registrar and secretary to Principal Guy.

"Who's next?" asks Mrs. Virginia Bartlett as she controls the traffic into the vice principal's office. Mrs. Bartlett keeps the attendance records and is secretary to Mr. Havens.

"Two plus two equals four," teases Mrs. Bertha Holzworth as she tabulates the expenses of various school activities. Mrs. Holzworth is activity fund treasurer.

Sorting the periodicals according to titles is one of the many jobs falling to Mrs. Eleanor Lanning, library assistant.

faculty

combines fun and facts to provide for interesting classes

A place for everything.....is Mrs. Maurice Anders' motto as she tucks away the latest test taken by her junior English classes. Mrs. Anders also helped direct the musical, "Pajama Game," and was head sponsor of the junior class.

"Maybe a little more color on this side," thinks Mr. Warren Brown. Mr. Brown is the art instructor and sponsors Palette and Brush.

"Wait till I catch the person who wrote on this desk!" says Mr. E. A. "Chop" Cairns. Mr. Cairns teaches American history and is one of the senior class sponsors.

Catching up on some of the latest news is Mr. Olin Allen. Mr. Allen teaches world history and is in charge of the ticket force.

Not ABC's but secretarial and clerical classes are Miss Virginia Armstrong's specialties. Miss Armstrong is co-sponsor of Future Business Leaders of America club.

Pouring herself a cup of coffee in order to cope with the onrush of hungry students is Mrs. Bessie Coleman. Mrs. Coleman is in charge of the cafeteria.

Relaxing at home after a full day of teaching clothing classes, is Miss Esther Cope along with Tag, her cocker spaniel.

"Over hill, over dale," might be the tune Mr. John Cooper sings as he pedals to school. Mr. Cooper is vocal music instructor and directed the musical, "Pajama Game."

Displaying one of the posters advertising the drama club of which she is sponsor is Mrs. Gene Cramer. Mrs. Cramer teaches speech and directed the all-school play "Gidget," and the Perrill Club play.

"Like man, that's what you call music!" says Mr. Jim Dailey as he directs the dance band. Mr. Dailey also leads the orchestra.

faculty

donates time, ideas encouraging students to succeed

Having just put up the latest in facts and figures on computation, Miss Ruth Evans looks over her handiwork. Miss Evans teaches algebra and trigonometry and co-sponsors student council.

Having a conference with Jane Tongate, one of her senior English students, is Miss Doris Ely. Miss Ely is chairman of the English department.

Trying out her desk in the new library is Miss Ethelyn Flagg. Miss Flagg is the head librarian at HHS. She is also head of the assembly committee.

"Oh, woe is me," sighs Mr. Lewis Gilbreath, as he grieves over his broken foot. Mr. Gilbreath is boys' counselor in building A.

True to his motto "Think", Mr. C. R. Gillilan seems to be pondering over his American problems classes. He also teaches an advanced class of American government, and is head sponsor of the sophomore class.

Finding out the latest information on available scholarships is Mr. Homer Grimes, new counselor in building C. Mr. Grimes also teaches psychology.

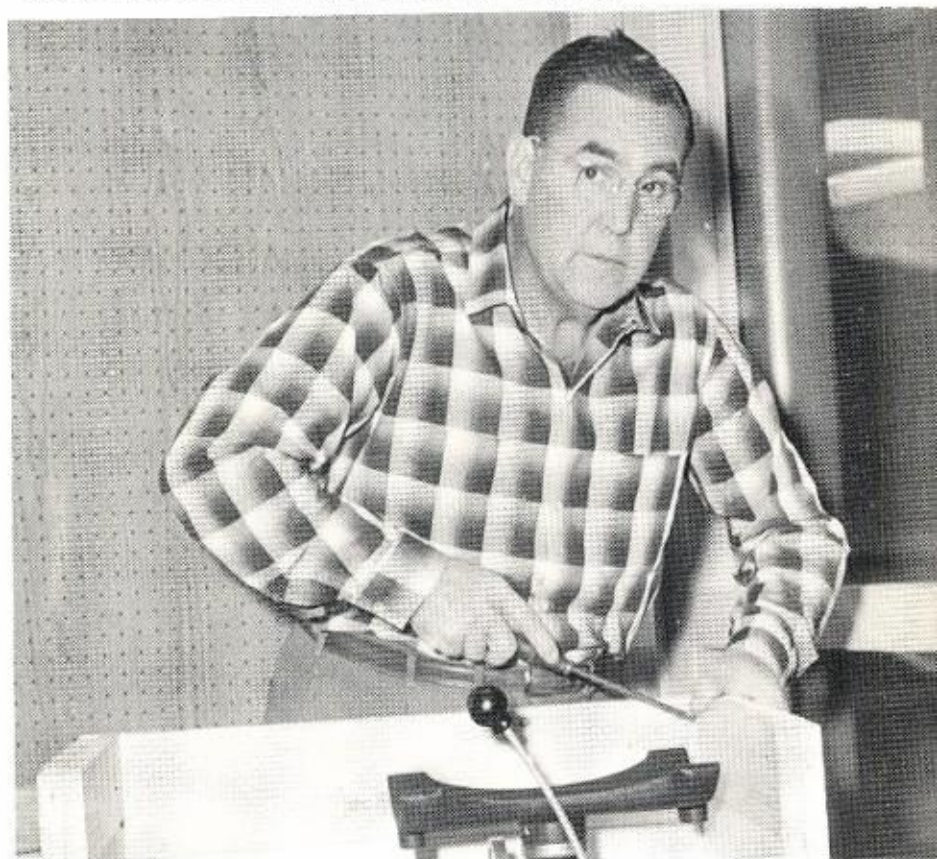

Teaching his students the fundamentals of mathematics is the job of Mr. Clark Herrin, mathematics instructor.

Wearing a proud smile and his snappy new uniform is Mr. Lewis Hiigel, director of the Salt Hawk marching band. Mr. Hiigel also conducts the concert band and instructs ensembles.

Bottles, bottles, and more bottles—Mr. Darol Graham gets his chemistry room in order by sorting all the chemicals necessary for the new laboratory. Mr. Graham is a newcomer to HHS.

Preparing for a bit of "stargazing" is Mr. Max Hamilton as he unpacks the new telescope. Mr. Hamilton, physical science instructor, helps sponsor Valence club and H-Club. He also teaches physics.

faculty

*spends many hours
developing students' skills, abilities*

"Oh, come on! You know the answer," teases Mr. Frank Kellenbarger. Along with teaching algebra and geometry, Mr. Kellenbarger is a sponsor of Key club.

At the time consuming job of making out grade cards is Mr. Russell Kingsley. Mr. Kingsley teaches woodworking, millworking, and is on the assembly committee.

Keeping his figure trim is Mr. E. M. "Irish" Ireland, as he works out on his exercise bike. Mr. Ireland is head football coach and boys' gym instructor. He helps sponsor H-Club and is on the intramural committee.

Somebody goofed—Mrs. Aylene Keown displays her "favorite" birthday gift. Mrs. Keown oversees the publication of the BUZZ, and the ALLAGAROO, and also teaches English.

Presiding over the "peppy" pep assembly before the Hutch vs. Newton basketball game is Mr. Del Knauer, one of the sponsors of Briny Birds. Mr. Knauer teaches senior English, and modern novels.

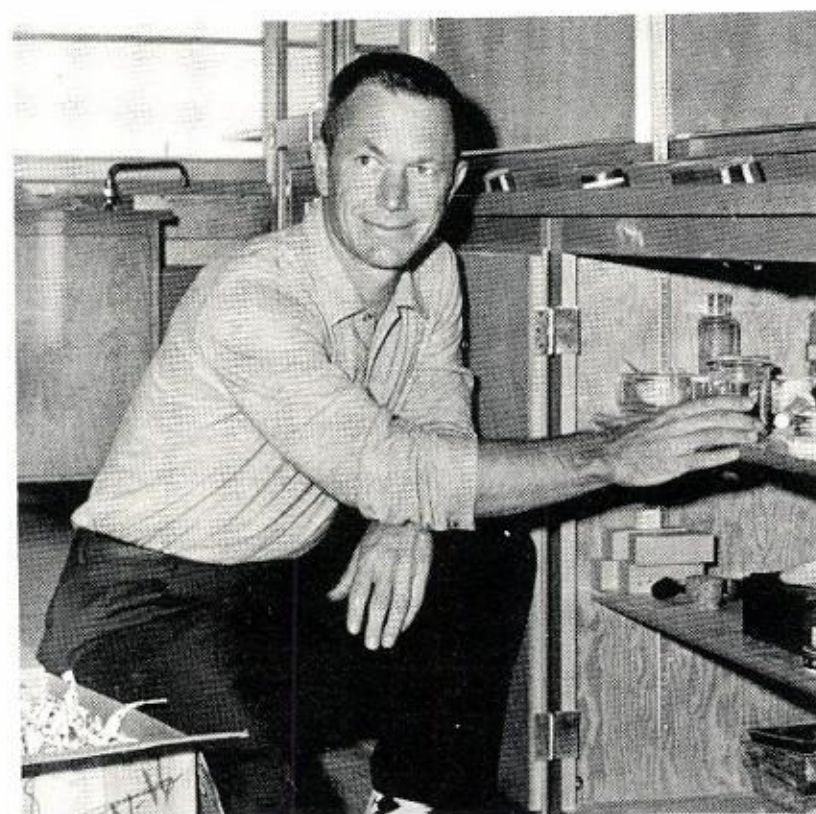

"Now you know you can't expect to make a profit that way," points out Mr. Dennis Knox, general business instructor. Mr. Knox also teaches bookkeeping, and is co-sponsor of the ticket force. He is a junior class sponsor.

Demonstrating the use of his new process camera is Mr. Walter Knox. Mr. Knox is in charge of the print shop and supervises the printing of the weekly BUZZ.

Going over his list of starters for the next basketball game is head basketball coach, Mr. Joe Krafels. Mr. Krafels helps coach track and football and teaches driver training.

Shelving a new supply of equipment for his biology classroom is Mr. Woodrow "Woody" Kramer. Mr. Kramer is head track coach, athletic director, and helps sponsor H-Club.

"That's my boy," says Mr. Homer Kruckenberg. Mr. Kruckenberg teaches American problems and American history and is one of the sophomore class sponsors. He also helps supervise the ticket force.

faculty

works with community to provide for better education

Still cheerful at the end of the day is Mr. William Lollis. Mr. Lollis teaches American problems and sociology, and also supervises the afternoon study halls in the cafeteria. He is a senior class sponsor.

"Time out for coffee break," says Mrs. Doris Lyman as she prepares to down a cup of her favorite beverage. Mrs. Lyman teaches junior English and sponsors the girls' ushering club, H-2. She is also a sophomore class sponsor.

The study of the human body is just one of the aspects of biology taught by Mr. Charles Lyons. Mr. Lyons is head wrestling coach, helps with football, and sponsors H-Club.

Giving each H-2 girl her assignment for the next home game is Mrs. Ora Kruse, a co-sponsor of the girls' ushering club. Mrs. Kruse teaches sophomore English.

"That's me!" exclaims Mr. Garland Longhofer as he arranges his desk. Mr. Longhofer is the new counselor in building B. He also teaches psychology.

Looking "pleased as punch" with the latest bunch of typing tests she is filing away, is Miss Charlene Mordy. Miss Mordy, a newcomer to HHS, helps sponsor Briny Birds. She also teaches clerical practice and stenography.

Looking up the next day's assignment for her junior English classes is Miss Thressa Newell. Miss Newell is a co-sponsor of GAA and also one of the Briny Bird sponsors.

Preparing to stir up a batch of short stories for her sophomore English classes is Miss Janice Nickel, a new teacher at HHS. Miss Nickel also teaches home economics and helps sponsor Junior Red Cross.

Keeping the film room in perfect order is the job of Mr. C. E. McMullin, in charge of the audio-visual equipment. Mr. McMullin also teaches American history.

"We're off!" says Miss Donna Needham as she leaves for Pittsburg, Kans., on a PELS trip. Miss Needham is girls' physical education instructor and a co-sponsor of GAA.

faculty

gains experience in using, operating new equipment

Giving her "green thumb" a workout is Miss Mildred Parker, biology teacher and chairman of the biology department.

"Testing one, two, three, four," says Mrs. Esther Ogle as she tries the doors of her new cupboard. Mrs. Ogle is a mathematics teacher and a co-sponsor of Junior Red Cross.

Making sure the keys for each class are in proper place before locking up, is drafting instructor, Mr. Claude Parks.

Chuckling to himself over the possible ways to add to the school's collection of debate trophies is Mr. Bobby Patton, debate coach and sponsor of the National Forensics League group. Mr. Patton teaches speech and also helps sponsor Perrill club.

Preparing the material for giving an SRA reading laboratory exercise is Mrs. Ariel Perrill, sophomore English teacher. Mrs. Perrill is sponsor of Future Teachers of America.

American Observer day finds Mrs. Marion Peterson making out a "pop" quiz for her American history classes. Mrs. Peterson is a senior class sponsor.

"Name the eight parts of speech," says Mr. John Poe as he presides over one of his sophomore English classes.

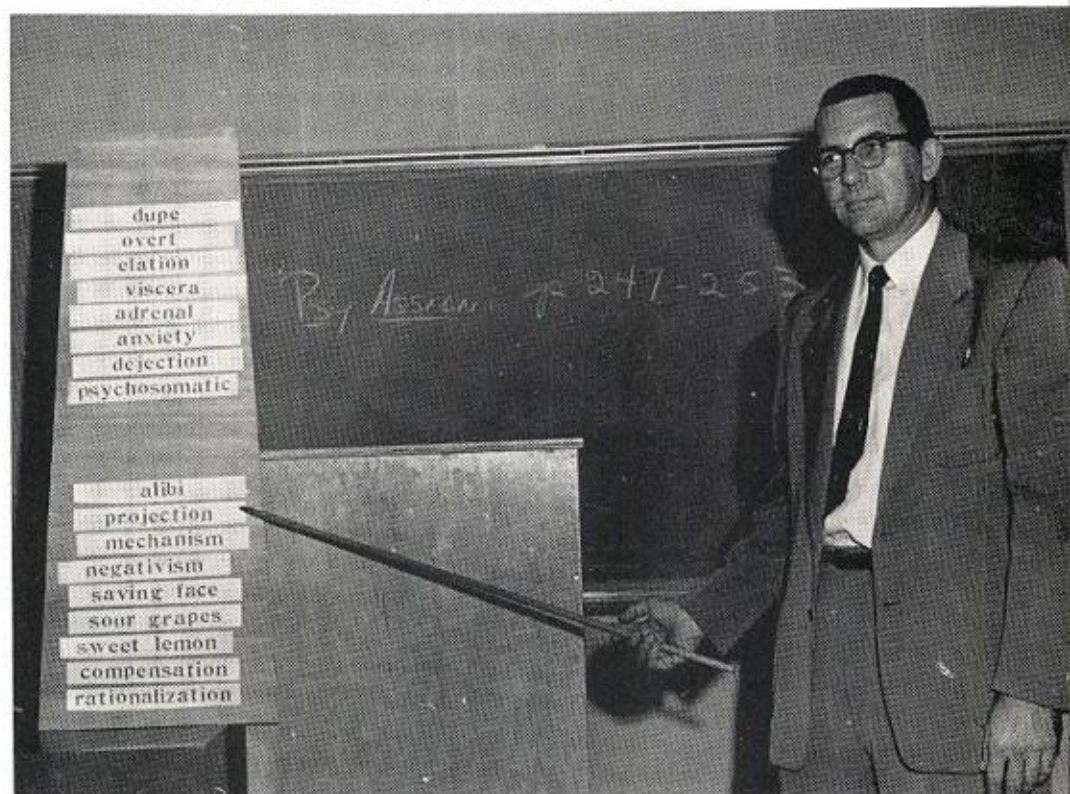

Conducting a discussion, Mr. Clayton Powers points out important facts to his psychology classes. Mr. Powers is keeper of the morning study halls in the cafeteria.

Parlez-vous Francais—Mr. Joseph Pesséat is not only a newcomer to HHS, but also a newcomer to the United States. Mr. Pesséat teaches French.

Changing a student's schedule to fit his needs is only one of the many duties of Miss Mary Petty, girls' counselor. Miss Petty is head sponsor of Co-ed Counselors and co-sponsor of Kayettes.

faculty

*leads busy life
in new campus-style school*

Checking through his grade book for names of those getting incompletes on their grade cards is Mr. Harold Pryor. Mr. Pryor teaches American problems and is a co-sponsor of Hi-Y.

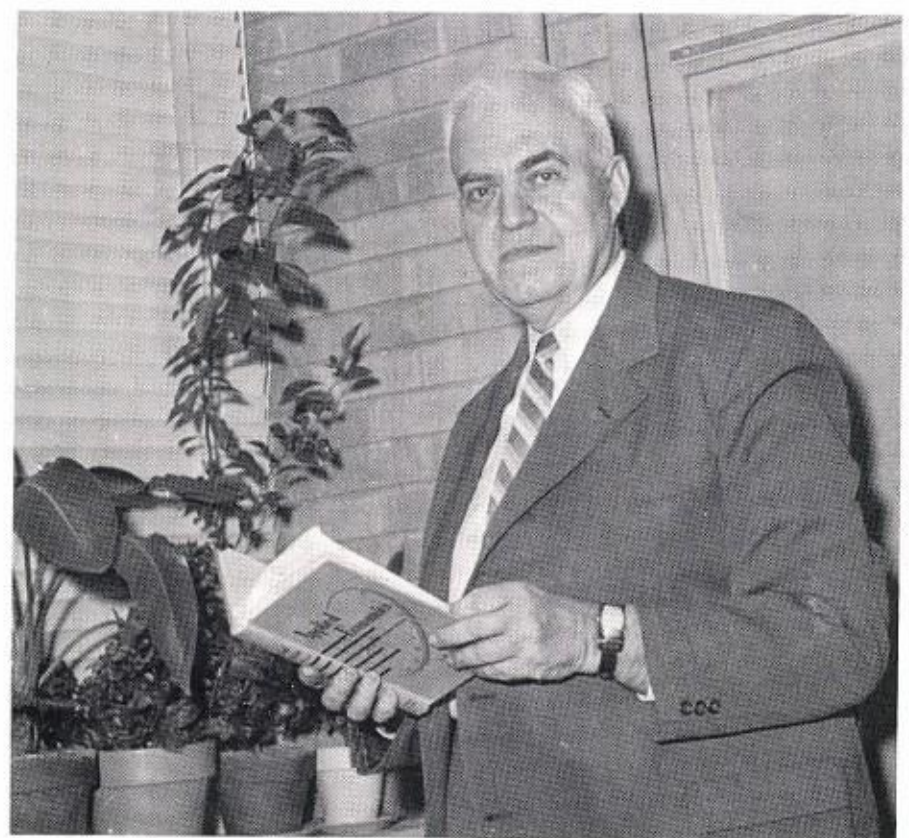

Displaying a mosaic, an extra credit class project turned in by one of her Latin students, is Miss Emma Sage. Miss Sage also co-sponsors Kayettes.

Buenos días—Mr. Stanton Shopmaker practices his Spanish while learning the correct method of operating the equipment in the language laboratory. Mr. Shopmaker is the new Spanish teacher and sponsors Los Gatos.

Helping a student on her sewing project is a task that falls Miss Margaret Ramsdale's way as general homemaking teacher. Miss Ramsdale also teaches cooking. She is a co-sponsor of Future Homemakers of America and one of the junior class sponsors.

"Next question, please," says Mr. Walter Rinehart as he leads a classroom discussion. Mr. Rinehart teaches personal typing, salesmanship, business law, and co-sponsors Future Business Leaders of America.

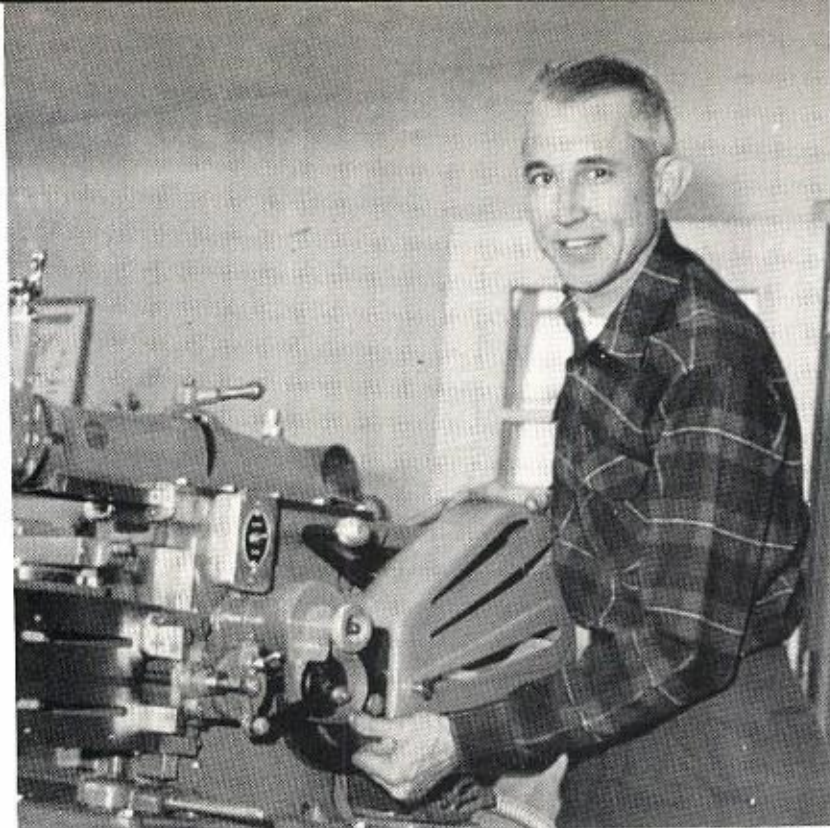

Checking to see if all bookkeeping assignments are in is Mr. John Smith. Besides teaching general business and bookkeeping, Mr. Smith is in charge of the ticket force.

The facts and figures of plane geometry are taught by Miss Marie Stewart. Miss Stewart is also a Kayette sponsor.

Proving that "machinery can be fun" is Mr. Carl Skoch. Mr. Skoch teaches general metals and is a sponsor of student council.

Taking her turn at being mailman, Mrs. Dorothy Stamper places various items in teachers' "mailboxes." Mrs. Stamper teaches Spanish and English and helps sponsor Kayettes.

"That's one less set of papers to grade," thinks Mr. Richard Stowell as he files away some typing tests. Mr. Stowell teaches typing and general business, sponsors FBLA, and is on the intramural committee.

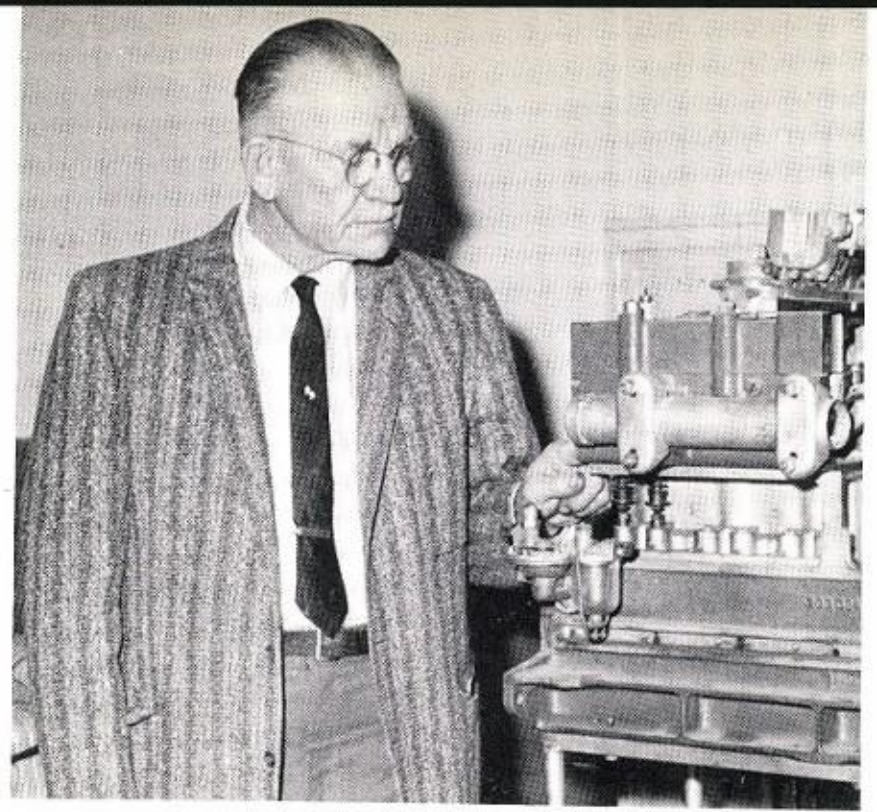

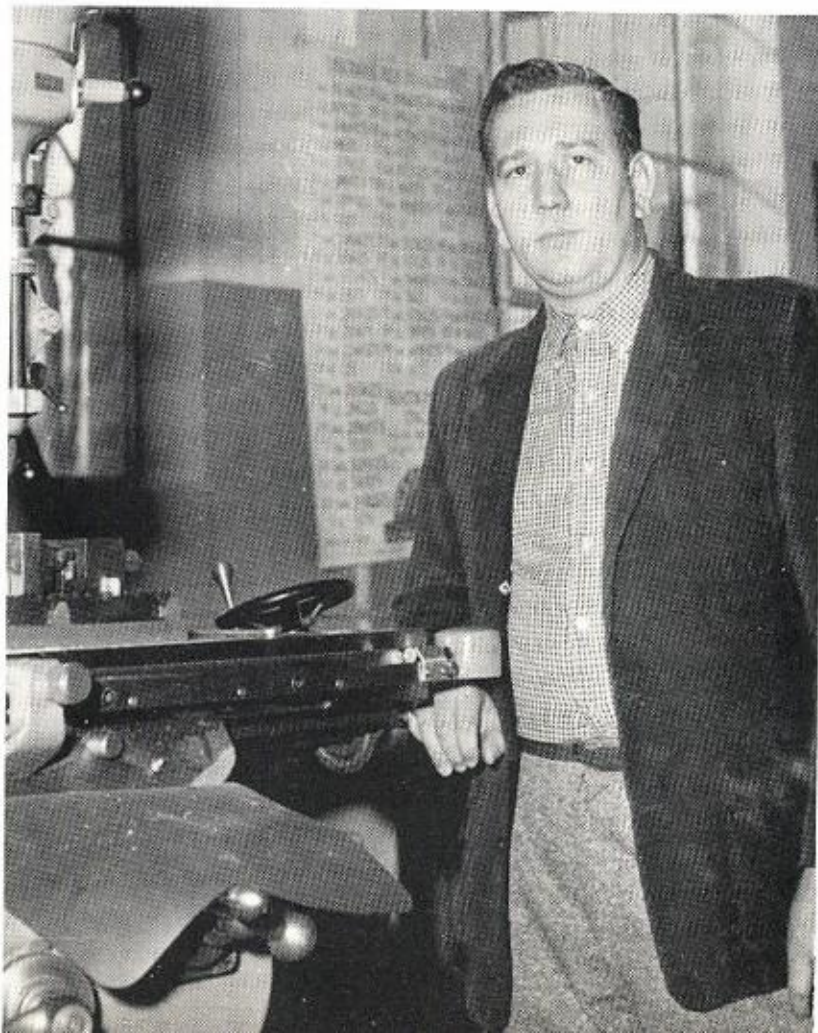

faculty

becomes acquainted with new students as others graduate

Ready to write down the next day's assignment for her English classes is Mrs. Renee Townley. Mrs. Townley, a new teacher, also teaches elementary art and crafts.

Getting ready to move into the new shop building at Hutchinson Junior College is machine shop instructor, Mr. Roland Wilson. Mr. Wilson teaches high school students in the morning and college students in the afternoon.

Engine trouble—these are familiar words to auto mechanics instructor, Mr. Vaden Stroud. Mr. Stroud again served as parade marshal in the homecoming parade as he has in past years.

Clothing instructor Mrs. Elizabeth Trosper gathers new ideas and helpful hints for her clothing classes. Mrs. Trosper is a co-sponsor of Future Homemakers of America.

Instructing his sophomore biology students in the proper way to dissect worms is Mr. Jack Klingler. Mr. Klingler also teaches physiology and co-sponsors Valence club.

acknowledgments

The 1961 Allagaroo staff and adviser, Mrs. Aylene Keown, wish to express appreciation for the help they received in producing this yearbook from the administration, faculty, and students; the Art Eveland Studio; Mr. J. B. Holdren for his technical art advice; and Mr. Frank Winter for making the aerial picture of the building possible.

The yearbook was lithographed by Myers Yearbooks, Inc. of Topeka, Kans. The copy is of three types: the cutlines are 10 point Futura Book and 10 point Futura Demi-bold; the body copy is 12 point Futura Book; the index and senior records are 8 point Futura Book; headlines are set in lower case 24 point Futura Demi-bold, and the sub-headlines are 18 point Baskerville Italic; the division pages are 36 point Futura Bold and 18 point Baskerville Italic.

letter to the staff

Well, gang, it's all over but the shouting. The last deadline has been met, the unused layout paper is stored away in the old catch-all metal cabinet, the dummy is in order, and we can finally take that well-deserved rest. I realize you have all spent many sleepless nights, a lot of tears, and donated a lot of sweat to put out this yearbook, but now, with the finished product in your hands, you know as well as I—it was worth it.

ZEKE, it's been a real experience working with you. I'll bet you dreamed about picture-appointment slips every night this year! NANCY, your pleasant personality simply amazes me. Thinking back, I can't remember ever hearing you say a harsh word to anyone. That's quite a record. JERRY, besides, the perfect pages you turned in, you're to be highly commended for the success in which you took care of the book-keeping. I know that it often seemed like a thankless job.

MARCIA E., you are one of those people that editors love. Every time you handed in pages early you boosted my ego. I always said it could be done. You proved it. JULIE, I'll always remember you sitting in the far corner attempting to index to the accompaniment of Keith's wisecracks. You were my guiding light in English, too.

LUD, I can honestly say that you always kept me on my toes. I could go nowhere else with you applying your famous Shoulder Roach. I was impressed! MARCIE, your quick smile was always appreciated, even though we did have a little difficulty with the ABC's. JIM, you did a great job this year, despite your many romantic entanglements. Golf was your first love, anyway.

DEE, you were like a ray of sunshine in our sometimes dismal journalism lab, and we all love you for it. CAROL, I kept in fine shape chasing you around the room. By the way, are you ticklish? Undulay! MARCIA H., with all your other activities, you did a tremendous job on the Allagaroo, and I never saw you get angry, even under pressure.

BARRY, you're the nearest thing to a beatnik HHS ever dealt with. You've been up the proverbial creek without a paddle (or a boat!) nearly as often as a good buddy of yours. Yea, non-conformity! SARAH, after much consideration I have decided that you and I should become psychiatrists. At least we would each have one client. TOM, as the leader of the Darkroom Desperados you have really had your hands full. You and your cronies made this book possible. We won't forget it.

MARTHA, you certainly did your share of work this year. And, believe it or not, you looked great as the Plain One that week. KEITH, I will have to choose you as the one most likely to succeed. You've got a head on your shoulders that would be hard to match anywhere. You know the old adage; "When in doubt, ask Keith." JANET, your gay laughter was a real headache remedy. For some reason, Janet, I seem to feel that you don't like deadlines; but, thank goodness, they're all over now.

VAN, you turned in some really terrific basketball pages and met that last deadline after I had deemed it impossible. I'm proud of you. Do you think we'll ever learn the second verse to "You Are My Sunshine?" JOAN, I guess you realize now that you will never change Charlie's political views. I'm on your side; I don't believe in socialized medicine, either.

LARRY, when things got too rugged we could always count on you to come forth with the latest jokes. Your sense of humor was an asset to the whole staff. LOIS ANN, you'll probably never know how much it meant to me to have you on my side. When the chips were down, Little Red, you were my crutch. We shared a lot of problems and had a lot of fun. To quote an ancient Lithuanian philosopher, "It's a wunnerful thing!" MIKE, I really did appreciate your demonstrations of the latest wrestling holds. I never used my left arm anyway.

MARY BETH, that sweet smile of yours could charm the horns off the Devil. Besides being sweet and gracious, you were an industrious journalist. That's a hard combination to beat. ALICE JANE, your work was as thorough as any I ever saw and was further proof of your renowned know-how, as if proof were needed.

JOHN and BOC, you two buddies have had a real influence on me. When I needed anything, you guys offered it, whether I had asked or not. You two gave me the moral support that I needed; you were behind me in everything I attempted. I don't deserve buddies like you two but since I have that good fortune I want you to know you can count on me—for anything.

A.K., thanks. I know I don't have to explain further.

K.B.

Dear Linda,
Didn't see you much this school year, but have seen you quite a bit of you
